K.S. "BUD" ADAMS, JR.

*Founder/Owner/
Chairman/CEO*

A native of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, K. S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s interest in sports was first displayed while at Culver Military Academy where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver, Adams attended Menlo College (California), lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Adams joined the U.S. Naval Reserve during World War II and was stationed aboard a PAC-Fleet carrier unit where he served as an aviation engineering officer. Prior to his discharge in 1946, Lt. jg Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington D.C.

Truly "a man for all seasons," Adams parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog which grounded his plane, into a highly-successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the prominent businessmen in the country.

In 1946, Adams started ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc. (AE), an energy company engaged in the business of marketing crude oil, natural gas and petroleum products; tank truck transportation of petroleum products and liquid chemicals; and oil and gas exploration and production. Adams' other business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing, a travel agency, western art and Indian artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams, a year-round sports fan, was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports was further manifested by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball and boxing.

Adams made football history on August 3, 1959, when he, along with Lamar Hunt of the Dallas Texans (now Kansas City Chiefs), helped co-found the American Football League.

In fact, these two pioneers

and Ralph Wilson of the Buffalo Bills are the only original team owners left in the NFL, with the exception of the recent NFL expansion teams.

In a career entering its fifth decade as founder, owner, chairman and CEO of the Tennessee Titans (formerly Houston Oilers and Tennessee Oilers), the hard-working and aggressive Adams has made professional football history numerous times during his regime. In 1968, Adams' Oilers became the first NFL team to play their home games indoors by moving into Houston's Astrodome. A team rich in tradition and pride, the Oilers were the dominant team in the American Football League during the 10-year era (1960-69), playing in the championship game four times (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967) – and winning twice consecutively (1960, 1961); earning four AFL Eastern Division Championships (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967); and making the playoffs five years out of 10 (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967, 1969). In 1970, the AFL merged into the expanded the last untapped area without a major professional sport. That feat allowed his team to be the first NFL franchise to call "the Volunteer State" home. During construction of Adelphia Coliseum, the Tennessee Oilers played the 1997 season at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, and the 1998 season at Vanderbilt Stadium in Nashville.

Then, to honor the Tennessee fans for their tremendous support and to reflect the move to Nashville, Adams announced on July 29, 1998, that the Oilers' name would be changed in 1999. The Oilers' name was retired by the NFL – a first in league history, allowing the Tennessee franchise to retain the team's winning tradition and launching a new era in the Mid-South.

1999 marked the inaugural season of the Tennessee Titans. In Greek mythology, Titans were men of strength and power. The Titan, Prometheus, brought fire to man; and the Titans of today brought fire to the football fans in the Mid-South during a very memorable inaugural season, unveiling a new name, stadium, training facility, logo, uniform and colors. Adams personally selected T-Rac as the team's new mascot.

With a gutsy and exhilarating play, the Titans ended their inaugural season by recording the most victories (13) in one season in the franchise's history, earning Adams his first AFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance, and winning respect and admiration from thousands of fans across the nation and throughout the world. The team also christened the sparkling, new Adelphia Coliseum – the team's fourth different and final home venue in the last four years – by becoming the only team in the AFC to win all of its regular season and playoff home games. The Titans were one single yard short of forcing the first overtime in what has been called the best Super Bowl game ever played.

During Adams' illustrious career, forty-nine of his players have been Pro Bowl selections, including an AFL and NFL Most Adams personally congratulated the team following the AFC Divisional victory at Indianapolis.

NFL, and Adams' Oilers made the playoffs 10 times (1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993). In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93) was the longest streak in the NFL during that time span. The Oilers captured their first AFC Central Division Championship in 1991 and their second in 1993. The Houston Oilers played their final season in 1996 at the Houston Astrodome.

In 1997, Adams led the National Football League into the Mid-South region, Valuable Player: Also, four of Adams' players have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In recognition of the 40th season of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans organization, last fall Adams unveiled an official team hall of fame that will feature players and staff from the past, while creating a special place for Titans stars of the future to be recognized.

Adams is currently a working member on several prominent NFL committees, including the NFL's Finance, Hall of Fame and International Committees, and is a Trustee for the NFL Trust. Very active in national, state and local programs, Adams is on the Board of Directors of the Cherokee Indian National Historical Society; the Board of Governors of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation; the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America - Sam Houston Area Council; and the Board of Directors of The Hundred Club in Houston. He is an Emeritus Trustee of the Culver Educational Foundation; and is a Lifetime Director of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. In Tennessee, he is on the Board of Directors of the Middle Tennessee Council of the Boy Scouts of America; a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the 100 Club of Nashville.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. Most recently, he was the recipient of the Lamar Hunt Outstanding Pro Football Executive Award for the year 2000 from the All-American Football Foundation; and in March 2000, he received the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Silver Hope Chest Award in Nashville. In 1997, he was honored by Sigma Chi Fraternity with a formal portrait and bust on permanent display in the foyer and museum of their Evanston, Illinois, headquarters. He was inducted into Culver Academy's

Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in 1994. In 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi, which is the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In 1990, he was given Sigma Chi Foundation's Semi-Centennial Award. Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included the 1988 prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" from the Greater Houston Convention and Visitor's Bureau; and the 1987

Adams was the recipient of the Lamar Hunt Outstanding Pro Football Executive Award for the year 2000.

Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). He was named 1983 "King Capon" by Bill Williams' Annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.; 1981 "Man of the Year" by Culver Military Academy; 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer" by Financial World Magazine; 1980 "Distinguished Alumnus" by California Community and Junior College Association; 1969 "Westerner of the Year" by the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; 1963 "Significant Sig" by Sigma Chi Fraternity; 1961 "Mr. Sportsman" by the Interfaith Charity Group; 1960 "Houston Salesman of the Year" by the Houston Sales Association.

Adams and his wife Nancy celebrated their 50-year wedding anniversary in October 1996. They have two daughters: Susie Smith and Amy Strunk, and seven grandchildren. Their son Kenneth S. Adams III is deceased.

Adams Resources and Energy Ranks #1 in Houston

1999 was a successful year, not only for Adams' team, but for his Houston-based business as well.

FORTUNE 500

K. S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s Houston-based Adams Resources and Energy, Inc. (AE on the American Stock Exchange), which he runs as CEO, stars in the current Fortune 500 listing. Of the elite roster of the largest U.S. companies that were featured in an April issue of Fortune, Adams' company cracked the 500 list for the first time ever, ranking 400 for 1999, a big jump from their 1998 ranking of 662. The company doubled its sales in 1999 and almost tripled its profits. Its stock appreciated almost 50 percent during the year.

Adams a Major Contributor in the Community

The private side of Bud Adams is reflected in his charitable and philanthropic activities, which are often anonymous. In Spring 1999, Adams established a statewide art contest that spotlighted the importance of art in education and added some Tennessee artistic flair to the new Adelphia Coliseum. The contest, which was open to high school students, resulted in 150 winning entries that hang in the new stadium. One winner in each grade won $1,000, with runners-up receiving $750 each. Adams did not leave out the junior high students. The Titans' owner rewarded sixth, seventh and eighth graders for their hard work by donating 3,500 pairs of tickets to the historic first game at the new stadium to Middle Tennessee middle schools. He showed his appreciation to all of the men and women who worked on both Adelphia Coliseum and Baptist Sports Park by presenting a pair of tickets for the first game at Adelphia Coliseum to each worker. Adams donated football equipment to the Nashville School District. Adams purchased over 500 copies of Tennessee Titans Advisory Board of Directors member Wilma Dykeman's book titled "Tennessee: A History" to be used in seventh grade history classes at public schools across the state. During the week of Super Bowl XXXIV, Adams donated two pairs of tickets. One pair was raffled off to help pay medical expenses for Kaia Jergenson, a local Nashville basketball player who lost her legs due to bacterial meningitis. The other pair helped a badly-needed blood drive by encouraging Nashville residents to donate blood to the Red Cross, resulting in the collection of 3,539 pints of blood. Adams also gave the "trip of a lifetime" to Super Bowl XXXIV to 40 Nashville teenagers and 10 chaperones who were chosen with the help of six local charities. "Bud's Kids" went to Atlanta, attended team functions with the players' families, enjoyed the Super Bowl from 50-yard-line seats, and flew back to Nashville on the Titans' 747 charter.

In 1999, Adams and wife Nancy contributed $500,000 to create the Tennessee

Titans Foundation which will serve only the interests and people of Tennessee. The Foundation offers financial support and other resources to non-profit organizations, which will enrich and strengthen communities throughout the Volunteer State. Since 1986, Adams has generously donated more than $4 million to support a diverse group of charities.

In 1998, Adams teamed with NFL Charities to provide $200,000 for disaster relief and to help repair damage to schools

With an eye toward the community, Bud and Nancy Adams have donated much of their time and money to support a diverse group of charities, both nationally and locally.

caused by two tornadoes that unexpectedly struck East Nashville. The Titans assisted the tornado-damaged Clarksville area in February 1999, and have provided support and contributions to a wide variety of state and local charities including Vanderbilt Children's Hospital, W.O. Smith School of Music, The Oasis Center, Salvation Army Red Shield Project, Nashville Symphony, United Way of Middle Tennessee, Nashville Ballet and Junior League of Nashville's "Our Kids" Program. Adams' direct contribution to organizations in the Volunteer State total well over a million dollars.

Adams also spearheaded the drive for the construction and operation of the original Houston Ronald McDonald House. His team's galas, which were held biannually between 1978-94, raised more than $3.5 million dollars to support, operate and provide the permanent endowment of the Ronald McDonald House.

JEFF DIAMOND

President/Chief Operating Officer

Jeff Diamond enters his second season as the Titans' President/Chief Operating Officer and his 25th season in the NFL in 2000. For the first time in 40 years, Titans' owner and founder K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. relinquished his title of team president when he named Diamond on July 23, 1999.

Diamond is responsible for both football and non-football operations in Nashville for the Titans. He recently negotiated a three-year extension with Executive Vice-President/Head Coach Jeff Fisher. He works closely with Executive Vice-President/General Manager Floyd Reese on salary cap planning and player contracts and with Reese and Fisher on team roster decisions and planning. He also works with Executive V.P./Administration Don MacLachlan in overseeing the Titans' administration, sales and marketing areas. In addition, he oversees the management of Baptist Sports Park and Adelphia Coliseum and attends NFL meetings as a club representative.

Diamond joined the Titans after serving as the Minnesota Vikings Senior Vice-President of Football Operations. He spent 23 years with the Vikings organization after joining them in 1976 as assistant PR director. Over his 24 years in the NFL, teams that Diamond has been associated with have qualified for the playoffs 15 times. He was named Senior Vice-President of Football Operations in August, 1998, and he negotiated all player contracts and oversaw player personnel, the coaching staff, all other team operations, and served as the Vikings' liaison with the NFL office and other clubs on scheduling matters. He was very involved in the planning and building of the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. He was a member of the

In March of 1999, the 47-year old Diamond was named the NFL's Executive of-the-Year by The Sporting News after the Vikings ended the 1998 season with a league-best 15-1 mark during the regular season en route to an appearance in the NFC Championship Game. Diamond, who was responsible for the salary cap, trades and player contract negotiations, among his other duties, spearheaded the Vikings' re-signings in 1998 of key free agents RB Robert Smith, WR Jake Reed, T Todd Steussie and DT John Randle with multi-year contracts, as well as an extension with WR Cris Carter.

Diamond is actively involved in the Nashville and Middle Tennessee community. He is on the Board of Trustees for United Way of Metropolitan Nashville, the Board of Governors for the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Directors for The Nashville Symphony and YMCA of Middle Tennessee and the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. He also is a member of The Exchange Club of Nashville.

A native Minnesotan, Diamond attended St. Louis Park High School and then graduated from the University of Minnesota with honors and played soccer for the Golden Gophers. Jeff and wife, Diane, have two children, Brett (18) and Brooke (15).

Diamond was officially named team president in this July, 1999 press conference.

JEFF FISHER

Executive Vice-President/ Head Coach

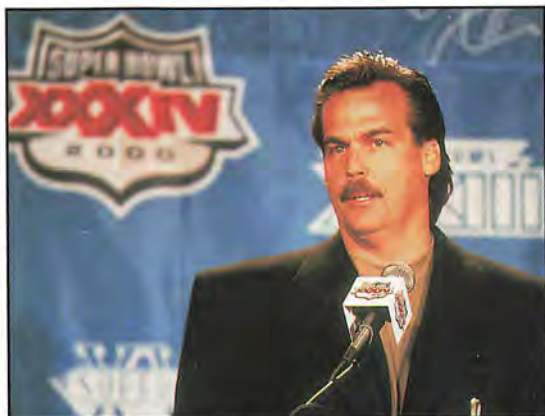

Jeff Fisher is entering his sixth season as the Titans head coach and his first with the Executive Vice-President title. Last season, Fisher became the first head coach in franchise history to lead the team to a Super Bowl after posting a franchise-best 13-3 regular season record.

Along the way, Fisher's team captured the hearts of fans across the Mid-South and earned respect around the league. The Titans made their first postseason appearance since 1993 while displaying a never-say-die attitude. Last season, the Titans came from behind four times in the fourth quarter to win and also erased deficits in each postseason game. The Titans' 13-3 record tied Indianapolis and St. Louis for the second-best in the NFL and improved Fisher's five-year mark to 48-42. His 48 victories are second most in franchise's history to Bum Phillips' 59. The 1999 season was Fisher's best coaching job since taking over the head coaching position 10 games into the 1994 season. In the off-season, the team moved into a state-of-the-art training facility and played in front of a packed home stadium for the first time under his reign. Fisher had to adjust without starting quarterback Steve McNair for five weeks, but still kept the team focused on winning.

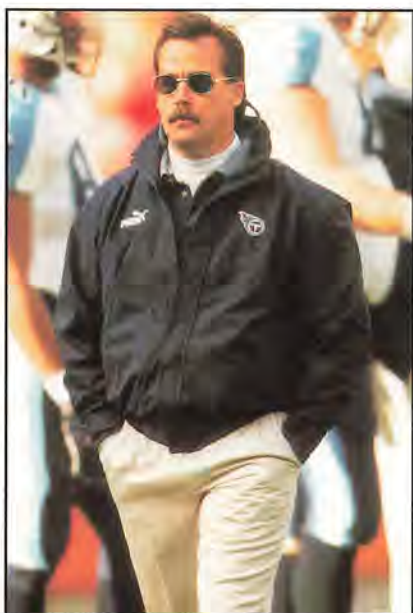

Fisher's team broke or tied a remarkable 52 team records he also became the first coach in franchise history to win his first three postseason games. Fisher, who guided the Titans to the best record in NFL history among Wild Card teams, became the only team in the AFC to win every home game during the regular and postseason and the only team to defeat the teams with the top records in each conference (St. Louis and Jacksonville). In fact, the 1999 Titans were an impressive 4-0 against teams that won at least 13 games.

Fisher and the Titans defeated AFC Central champion Jacksonville three times last season, handing the Jaguars their only losses. Being a Wild Card team, the Titans had the most difficult route to the Super Bowl. Fisher earned his first postseason victory by defeating Buffalo 22-16, and erased a 16-0 deficit in one of the biggest displays of heart in any second half of Super Bowl history against the Rams. The Titans became only the sixth team to earn a trip to the Super Bowl since the NFL added the Wild Card playoff team in 1978. Fisher guided the Titans to a streak of 13 consecutive wins against AFC Central Division opponents dating back to 1998. It marked the longest streak in the history of the division and the third-longest in the NFL

Fisher led the team to a franchise-best 13-3 record in 1999.

Fisher was appointed to the NFL Competition Committee by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue last December.

since the 1970 merger. Fisher has compiled a division record of 16-2 during the last two seasons. Last December, he was appointed by to the NFL Competition Committee by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. The committee oversees all aspects of the game on the field and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs.

Fisher originally joined the Oilers' coaching staff on February 9, 1994 after spending two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. Fisher was a perfect fit for the Oilers, who were looking for a young, aggressive coach with experience in the "46" defense. Fisher had worked with the "46" for many years with former Oilers Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan. Fisher took over a defense that achieved dominant status in 1993, but had lost several key components to free agency.

A former defensive back in college at the University of Southern California, Fisher played for John Robinson in a star-studded defensive backfield that included future NFL stars Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith and Joey Browner. Current Titans offensive lineman Bruce Matthews also was one of Fisher's USC teammates. Fisher's career statistics included five interceptions and 108 tackles. The versatile Fisher also served as the Trojans' backup kicker and earned PAC-10 All-Academic honors in 1980.

Originally a seventh-round draft selection of the Chicago Bears in 1981, Fisher appeared in 49 games as a defensive back and return specialist in five seasons. He earned a Super Bowl ring after Chicago's 1985 Super Bowl season, despite spending the year on injured reserve with an ankle injury that prematurely ended his playing career. During that season, Fisher began his post-playing career by assisting Ryan as an "unofficial" coach while the Bears ultimately defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XX. He left Chicago in 1985 holding a number of team records including: number of punt return yards for a season with 509 yards in 1981, number of punt returns in a season with 58 in 1984, and number of punt returns in one game with eight on December 16, 1984, at Detroit. He also recorded the longest punt return by a Bear in 39 years with an 88-yard return for a TD on September 20, 1981 against Tampa Bay.

Fisher began his coaching career as an assistant for Ryan and the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986, tutoring the defensive backs for three seasons before becoming the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1988. One year later, under Fisher's tutelage, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in interceptions (30) and quarterback sacks (62). In 1990, Philadelphia's defense paced the league in rushing defense and ranked second in QB sacks.

In 1991, Fisher headed west to be reunited with his college coach Robinson, serving as the Los Angeles Rams' defensive coordinator before joining the 49ers one year later.

A native of Southern Calif., Fisher was a high school All-America wide receiver for the Toreadors of Taft High School in Woodland Hills, Calif. Fisher is an avid golfer and fisherman. He also does considerable work off the field that does not receive much attention. He generously donates time and money to a number of different charities. Fisher was named the 1999 Sports Person of the year by the Nashville Sports Council.

Jeff and his wife, Juli, a former Rose Bowl Princess, have three children: sons Brandon (age 13) and Trenton (age 8), and daughter Tara (age 11).

THOMAS S. SMITH

Exec. Asst. to the Owner/CEO

A native of Houston, Thomas S. Smith is a graduate of the University of Texas with a B.B.A. in Finance. He worked in banking after graduating and prior to joining KSA Industries in 1974.

He currently serves as the Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of KSA Industries, the family holding company. In addition to that post, Smith is the Executive Assistant to K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. for the Titans' organization and his responsibilities include serving as a liaison in the club's day-to-day operations for Adams. Smith is on the Board of Directors of Adams Resources and Energy, Inc. and attends all NFL owners' meetings with Adams. In addition to his responsibilities with the Titans, he is involved with all of KSA Industries' subsidiary companies and industries, which range from oil and gas to automobile dealerships, farming and ranching interests, and real estate ventures.

Since 1997, Smith has been in charge of overseeing every aspect of the club's relocation process, and has worked closely with HOK, the Kansas City-based architecture and engineering firm, in the planning and development of Adelphia Coliseum in Nashville. He also guided the development of the temporary practice site in Bellevue, in addition to the Baptist Sports Park at MetroCenter.

Among his other activities, Smith is a past president and currently on the Board of Directors of the Houston Ronald McDonald House. He recently helped oversee the planning and architectural design for a bigger and better

Ronald McDonald House in Houston. The $10-million project was completed in September 1997. Smith is on the Board of Trustees of the Kinkaid School Endowment Fund, and he also served on the Board of Directors of the Red Cross and the Post Oak YMCA, and in the past worked closely with the Post Oak Little League. In addition, he is a past chairman of the Steering Committee for the Texas Children's Hospital Development Council. Previously, Smith was chapter chairman and a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for the March of Dimes and served more than 10 years in various capacities for the March of Dimes. In 1986, Smith was the recipient of the Freedom Foundation Certificate of Merit, an annual award presented by a national committee to those who best exemplify citizenship, community awareness and are actively involved in their communities.

Tommy and his wife, Susie, are parents of son, Stuart, and daughter, Nancy.

FLOYD REESE

Executive Vice-President/ General Manager

Floyd Reese is entering his 25th NFL season and his seventh as the Titans' Executive V.P./General Manager.

In five short seasons, he has assembled a talented, Super Bowl-caliber team and has overseen a dramatic transformation from the club he inherited in 1994 to the one that claimed the franchise's first AFC Championship. Reese was a strong candidate for NFL Executive of the Year honors after his club's remarkable season in 1999. Of the 22 starters for the Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV, 13 were drafted by Reese. Overall, 17 Tennessee starters in the Super Bowl were originally drafted by the franchise. Players in Tennessee's 2000 training camp comprised 35 draft selections from the last six drafts, including all six first-rounders featuring Pro Bowlers Eddie George and Jevon Kearse. He also claimed a diamond in the rough when he plucked TE Frank Wycheck off the waiver wire in 1995. Wycheck has since led the Titans in receptions for the each of the last four seasons and earned two consecutive Pro Bowl berths.

Reese signed several key free agents that aided in Tennessee's Super Bowl run, including FB Lorenzo Neal, DT Jason Fisk and QB Neil O'Donnell, who led the team to a 4-1 record while Steve McNair recovered from back surgery. Reese continued to fill holes this past off-season through free agency by inking deals with Cowboys LB Randall Godfrey and Rams OT Fred Miller.

Reese is responsible for all aspects of the Titans' football operations, including player personnel, scouting and contract negotiations. He joined the Oilers in 1986, serving as linebackers coach four seasons before shifting to the front office in 1990 as the club's Assistant General Manager. Four seasons later, Reese was promoted to General Manager. During his tenure, all first-round draft picks have been signed and in training camp by reporting day.

Reese aided in the selection of head coach Jeff Fisher and his staff, and coordinated all aspects of the team's National Football League draft and free agency.

A former All-America linebacker at UCLA (1966-69), Reese played one season with the Montreal Alouettes in the Canadian Football League before entering the coaching ranks. He began his coaching career at Liberty Union High in Brentwood, Calif., before returning to his alma mater in Westwood as an assistant coach in 1971. Reese spent three seasons at UCLA before moving to Georgia Tech in 1974.

Reese broke into pro football coaching in 1975, serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Detroit Lions. Reese then joined the San Francisco 49ers for one season (1978), before joining Bud Grant's staff as linebackers and special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1979. He served that role until 1984, when he was elevated to Defensive Coordinator. He tutored the linebackers for one season prior to joining the Oilers.

Floyd and his wife Sally have two sons: Jeremy (age 22) and Sean (age 19).

Reese's saavy moves via the NFL draft and free agency helped land the Titans in the Super Bowl last season.

DON MACLACHLAN

*Executive
Vice-President/
Administration*

Don MacLachlan is in his 10th season with the Titans and his third as Executive Vice-President/Administration.

He is responsible for all-non football operations with the organization.

Since arriving in Nashville, he has played an aggressive role in securing team sponsorships and corporate relationships, while interfacing with the Titans' broadcasting partners. MacLachlan has spearheaded excitement surrounding the team, building a fun and festive experience for fans at home games, and worked hard to link the organization with the greater Nashville community. He serves as a member of the Nashville Sports Council Board of Directors to gain further insight and feedback within the community.

MacLachlan's efforts helped launch a successful campaign in 1999 that increased the team's recognition throughout the region and contributed to all 11 home games being sold out in the club's inaugural season as the Titans. In addition, MacLachlan helped oversee the club's move to Nashville in 1997 was a key player in stadium naming rights negotiations with Adelphia Business Solutions.

The Detroit native started his tenure with the then-Houston Oilers in March 1991, as Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting. He was elevated to Senior Vice President in 1994 and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Marketing, Broadcasting and Ticketing in 1997. MacLachlan oversaw marketing, media, community relations, and the ticket office while in Houston. He also served as the liaison between both the radio and television rightsholders. MacLachlan administered off the field operations in both Memphis and Nashville during the club's first season in Tennessee in 1997.

MacLachlan joined the Oilers after spending 13 years in the athletic department at Northwestern University in Chicago. He first served as both Assistant Sports Information Director and Golf Coach in 1978. In 1981, MacLachlan was named Athletic Ticket Manager, and he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 1985. MacLachlan was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1988 and remained in that role until joining the Oilers.

A 1978 graduate of the University of Michigan, Don and his wife Kathy are parents of two daughters: Shannon (11) and Kelly (7).

MacLachlan helped create a strong identity for the Titans throughout the Mid-South during the club's first two seasons in Tennessee.

STEVE UNDERWOOD

Vice-President/ General Counsel

Steve Underwood is in his 10th season as the Oilers-Titans' Vice-President/General Counsel. The Baytown, Texas native handles a myriad of legal functions, including involvement in the salary cap and player contracts, stadium contracts, promotional and corporate agreements, and litigation. He also serves as General Counsel for KSA Industries, Titans' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s private holding company.

Over the last four years, Underwood was heavily involved in issues related to the franchise's relocation to Tennessee, including involvement as one of the Titans' principal negotiators with local governments in Nashville, Memphis and Houston. Underwood also headed the club's lease negotiations with Vanderbilt University, the Liberty Bowl, and Tennessee State University.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Underwood was an attorney for the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst since 1977. For his entire tenure there, Underwood served as the Oilers' primary counsel. Underwood also served as a part-time business law/real estate instructor at Baytown Lee College from 1980-81, and at San Jacinto Junior College from 1981-85.

Underwood is a frequent speaker and lecturer on sports law topics at State Bar functions, law schools and seminars.

Underwood also is a member of the Houston Bar Association, licensed attorney in the U.S. Federal Court system, and member of the Entertainment and

A key member of the Titans' executive staff, Underwood handles a variety of legal and contract matters.

Sports Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. In 1990, Underwood was issued a special citation by a student society at Texas Southern University's College of Law for his "educational contribution to the college."

A native of Baytown, Texas, Underwood received his B.J. degree from the University of Texas and his law degree from the University of Houston. From 1974-76, while a law student, he was a legislative aide in the Texas State Legislature. He also is a member of the State Bar's Labor and Employment Section and serves on a joint committee of the NFLMC and NFLPA which studies workers' compensation. He is involved in a variety of labor matters for the Club which relate to collective bargaining matters.

Steve has five children, including daughters, Christy (26), Melissa (20), Providence (5) and Liberty (3), and son, Dennis (8). Steve and his wife Frances reside in Rosharon, Texas.

JACKIE CURLEY

*Vice-President/
Finance*

In the spring of 1997, Jackie Curley was named to the position of Vice-President/Finance for the Oilers-Titans. Curley's responsibilities include financial reporting, budgeting, internal controls and cash management for the NFL franchise. Additionally, Curley works closely with the General Manager and General Counsel regarding salary cap issues and manages the player insurance program.

Prior to assuming her expanded role, Curley served as the Oilers' Controller for three years (1994-96). She was offered that position after completing her M.B.A. from Rice University while working full-time serving as Tax Manager for Titans' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s KSA Industries, Inc.

Before joining KSA Industries, Curley worked from 1985-89 as a Tax Supervisor in the Houston office of the accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand. Her clients while at Coopers & Lybrand were mainly high net worth individuals, including several prominent Houston families.

Born in Annapolis, Md., she grew up in Denver, Colo., graduating from the University of Denver with a BSBA, concentration in accounting, in 1983. She is single and resides in Houston.

IN MEMORIAM

Don Klosterman

*General Manager, Houston Oilers
1966-69*

Klosterman served as the Oilers' general manager for four seasons, drafting the likes of Elvin Bethea and George Webster en route to the 1967 AFL Eastern Division title and a berth in the AFL Championship Game. A true legend in football administration, Klosterman guided six pro football franchises to division titles as either coach or general manager, earning a Super Bowl ring with the Baltimore Colts in 1970. He died in June of a heart attack.

BOB HYDE

*Vice-President/
Community Affairs*

Bob Hyde is in his 12th season with the Titans and third as Vice-President/Community Affairs. Hyde returned to the Oilers in March of 1998 in his current position.

Under Hyde's direction, the Titans' community relations staff has made a major impact on the Mid-South with the success of the Titans' Caravans and over 300 player, coaches, and staff appearances this past year.

He has successfully coordinated the club's last two major fund-raising Titans Charity Golf Tournaments, which brought in nearly $200,000. Under Hyde's direction, this year's tournament more than doubled last year's total of $60,000 in funds raised for The Salvation Army's Red Shield Family Initiative and The Junior League of Nashville.

In 1998, Hyde served as the club's liaison between Mr. Adams and the advisory council. The information gathered by the advisory council and from focus groups that included hundreds of fans from across the state, aided Adams in giving the franchise a new name, logo and uniform.

A native of Tullahoma, Tenn., Hyde was a member of the team's media relations department from 1977-85. His career with the Oilers began as a University of Houston intern in 1977 and in the spring of 1978, he was named Assistant Public Relations Director.

Hyde was promoted to Media Relations Director in 1980 and served the Oilers in that capacity through the end of the 1985 season. He returned home to Tennessee in the spring of 1986, and for five years was an account executive with Nashville's Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence Public Relations agency.

Football once again lured Hyde to Texas in 1991, when he was named Director of Public Relations for the San Antonio

Riders of the NFL's World League of American Football. When the NFL suspended operations of that league in 1992, Hyde joined the PGA TOUR as a media official and was employed by the TOUR until he accepted his current position with the Titans.

A graduate of Tullahoma (TN) High School, Hyde attended Middle Tennessee State University before transferring to the University of Houston. The 49-year-old Hyde is single and has two daughters, Ashley (14) and Hannah (8). He resides in Nashville, Tenn.

Hyde and Titans mascot T-Rac visit with a young fan on the first of 72 stops of Titans Caravan 2000 in Franklin, Tenn. The highly successful caravan throughout the Mid-South enabled fans to meet players, staff and radio network personalities.

MIKE HEIMERDINGER • OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Heimerdinger, who brings 25 years of coaching experience and two World Championship rings, is in his first season as the Titans' offensive coordinator. Heimerdinger coached the wide receivers for the two-time world champion Denver Broncos. Under his tutelage, the Denver tandem of Ed McCaffrey and Rod Smith became one of the top wide receiving duos in the NFL. Denver's potent offense also led to rushing records for RB Terrell Davis, who gained at least 1,500 yards each season from 1996-98.

Heimerdinger came to Denver in 1995 from Duke University where he was the offensive coordinator and offensive backs coach in 1994. Before Duke, Heimerdinger spent five years (1989-93) as an assistant coach at Rice University. During his tenure, the Owls produced the school's first back-to-back winning seasons since 1960-61. In 1988, Heimerdinger also served as offensive coordinator at Cal-State Fullerton, where they set the school's single-game record for most points scored in one game with 58. Heimerdinger began his coaching career in 1975 as head coach at Johnsburgh High School in McHenry, Ill. Five years later, he served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Florida in 1980. He spent 1981 at Air Force and at North Texas State in 1982 before returning to Florida in 1983. He spent five years at Florida before moving onto Cal-State Fullerton. A native of Dekalb, Ill. (10/13/52), Heimerdinger played wide receiver (1970-71) and center-fielder at Eastern Illinois, where he earned his degree in history in 1975. He also participated in the NCAA Division II College World Series in 1974. He later earned his master's in Administration from Northern Illinois. Mike and his wife, Kathie, are parents of four daughter, Alicia and son, Brian.

GREGG WILLIAMS • DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Gregg Williams is entering his 11th season with the Titans and his fourth season as the Titans' defensive coordinator. Williams, whose talent and work ethic has allowed him to work his way up from quality control coach in 1990 to his current position in 1997, led a unit that ranked sixth in the AFC against the run last season. The Titans' stingy run defense only allowed one 100-yard rusher last season. In 1999, under Williams' guidance, the team's physical, and well-prepared defense also established a new team single-season record for sacks with 54, nearly doubling 1998's total of 30. Last season, the Titans' defense also led the NFL in the big play stat of combined sacks and turnovers with a whopping 94.

Williams' primary responsibility is the continued implementation and further development of the "46" hybrid. Williams spent three seasons (1994-96) overseeing the Oilers' linebackers after spending the 1993 campaign as the team's special teams coach. In 1993, Williams' special teams unit showed a renewed aggressiveness, as the Oilers had the top-rated punting game and rated sixth in kickoff return defense. From 1990-92, Williams served as the club's first quality control coordinator. In addition, Williams had previously assisted in the coaching of the Oilers' defensive backs, assisted the "scout" teams for Oiler practice sessions and helped the defensive coaching staff on game day.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Williams spent the 1988-89 seasons working with the linebackers as a graduate assistant at the University of Houston for former Oilers Head Coach Jack Pardee. From 1984-87, Williams was the head coach at Belton (MO) High School after spending the 1980-83 campaigns as an assistant coach at his hometown of Excelsior Springs (MO) High School.

A native of Excelsior Springs, Mo. (7/15/58), Williams played football (quarterback) and baseball at Northeast Missouri State where he received his B.S. degree. He later earned his master's in education from Central Missouri State. Gregg and his wife, Leigh Ann, have two sons, Blake (15) and Chase (8), and a daughter, Amy (10).

GEORGE HENSHAW • ASST. HEAD COACH/OFFENSE

George Henshaw is in his fourth season with the Titans and his first as assistant head coach/offense. He was elevated to his current position in May, 2000, after spending last season as the Titans' assistant head coach/running game. Henshaw will work in conjunction with offensive coordinator Mike Heimerdinger with responsibility for game-planning the team's offensive attack as well as coaching the tight ends. Last season, TE Frank Wycheck led the team in receptions for the fourth consecutive season and earned his second Pro Bowl invitation. The Titans' tight ends and H-backs have caught 306 passes during the last three seasons, the most in the league during that span.

Henshaw joined the Oilers in 1997 after serving as the offensive coordinator of the New York Giants for four seasons (1993-96). During his tenure with the Giants, the team boasted one of the best running games in the National Football League, including a league-high average of 138.1 yards per game in 1993. Before joining the Giants, Henshaw spent five years (1988-92) with the Denver Broncos, including a stint as the team's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 1992. Prior to that position, Henshaw coached Denver's wide receivers in 1991, and the Broncos offensive line from 1988-90. During that period, the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV. Prior to joining the Broncos, Henshaw was the head coach at the University of Tulsa for one season. After leading the Golden Hurricanes for the 1987 season, he joined the Broncos.

Henshaw began his coaching career at his alma mater, West Virginia (1970-75), before moving on to Florida State University. He spent seven years (1976-82) as both an offensive and defensive line coach for the Seminoles, including four years (1979-82) as offensive coordinator. From 1983-86, Henshaw served as the offensive coordinator as well as the offensive line coach for the University of Alabama, which led the SEC in total offense (424.1 yards per game).

A native of Midlothian, Va. (1/22/48), Henshaw is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia University. He and his wife, Kathleen, have three children: Michael (19), Matthew (17) and Kerry (14).

JERRY GRAY • DEFENSIVE BACKS

Former All-Pro cornerback Jerry Gray is in his fourth season as an NFL coach and second as the Titans defensive backs coach. He began his NFL coaching career in 1997 when he re-joined the Oilers organization as defensive assistant/quality control coach. Gray joined the Oilers coaching staff after spending two seasons as defensive backs coach (1995-96) at Southern Methodist University.

Prior to his first coaching stint, Gray spent nine seasons in the National Football League, playing for the Los Angeles Rams (1985-91), Oilers (1992), and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993) before retiring. He was a four-time Pro Bowler at cornerback (1986-89) with the Rams. He also was named the NFL's Defensive-Back-of-the-Year twice (1989-90), and earned MVP honors in the 1990 Pro Bowl.

A two-time consensus All-America and two-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year as a safety at the University of Texas (1983-84), Gray was a first-round draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1985 (21st overall). He played in 104 games for the Rams, registering 22 interceptions, including a career-best eight thefts in 1986.

Gray's first stint with the Oilers came as a player when he joined the club from the Rams as a "Plan B" free agent in 1992. He started 16 games for the Oilers that season and led the Oilers with six interceptions. He signed as a free agent with the Buccaneers prior to the 1993 season.

A native of Lubbock, Texas (12/16/62), Gray lettered in football, basketball, and track at Estacado High in Lubbock. He also is a member of the University of Texas' All-Time Team and All-Decade Team for the 1980s. In 1995, Gray was inducted in the Texas High School Hall of Fame and was recently named to the All-Time Texas High School Team. He and his wife, Sherry Annette, have one son, Jeremy Donte (9).

ALAN LOWRY • SPECIAL TEAMS

Alan Lowry, who called one of the most memorable plays in NFL playoff history, enters his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Titans and second as special teams coach. Last season, the Titans' special teams unit returned three kicks for touchdowns, including a game-breaking kickoff return in the AFC Championship game against Jacksonville. Under Lowry guidance, the Titans also blocked two punts last season, the most by the club since 1989. However the highlight of the special teams unit occurred in the Titans' Wild Card game against Buffalo. TE Frank Wycheck threw a lateral to Kevin Dyson that he returned for a game-winning touchdown.

Lowry took over the Titans' special teams after coaching the club's wide receivers corps from 1997-98. Lowry has spent 12 seasons coaching special teams from his positions with Dallas (1982-87), Tampa Bay (1991), and San Francisco (1992-95). He joined the Oilers in 1996 as defensive assistant/quality control and was promoted to the position of wide receivers coach one year later.

Lowry spent nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1982-90). He originally joined the Cowboys in 1982 as their special teams coach before shifting to receivers (1988-90). In 1991, he served as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-95. In San Francisco, Lowry and the Niners made two NFC Championship game appearances and captured a Super Bowl Championship.

A former quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas, Lowry earned All-Southwest Conference honors before jumping into the coaching ranks. Lowry began his coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1974 before moving to the University of Wyoming in 1975. He spent 1976 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys scouting department before returning to the University of Texas (1977-81) for five seasons as defensive backs coach. A native of Miami, Okla., Lowry resides in Franklin, Tenn. with his wife, Donna. The couple has two daughters, Marta (1) and Lindsay (12).

MIKE MUNCHAK • OFFENSIVE LINE

The backbone of the Titans' signature power running game is the club's offensive line. Former All-Pro guard Mike Munchak enters his fourth season as the Titans offensive line coach. Last season, Munchak's line paved the way for Eddie George to finish third in the conference with 1,304 rushing yards. The line also surrendered the third-lowest sack total in the NFL with 24, a big improvement from 1998 when they allowed 35. One of the greatest Oilers of all-time, Munchak joined the Oilers front office in 1994, assisting the offensive coaching staff and providing quality control. The future Hall of Famer was promoted to the title of offensive line coach in 1997.

Munchak has been one of the 15 finalists for the Pro Football Hall of Fame's last two classes. A former first-round draft choice of the Oilers (eighth overall) in 1982, Munchak played in 159 regular season games (fourth all-time on club's list) and 10 playoff games before retiring on July 21, 1994. When he retired, Munchak owned the club mark with nine Pro Bowl invitations. He also had his uniform (#63) retired on November 6, 1996, marking only the fourth jersey in Oilers history to be retired (Earl Campbell's #34, Jim Norton's #43 and Elvin Bethea's #65 are the others). He also was named to the inaugural class of the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame last season and was elected to the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. A native of Scranton, Pa. (3/5/60), Munchak and his wife, Marci, have two daughters, Alexandria (14) and Julie (12).

JIM SCHWARTZ • LINEBACKERS/THIRD DOWN PACKAGE

Jim Schwartz enters his second season with the Titans and first as linebackers coach. He will also work on the defense's third-down package. He joined the Titans' coaching staff in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control. Schwartz will be responsible for the development of rookie linebacker Keith Bulluck.

Prior to joining the Titans, Schwartz spent three years as an assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. While in Baltimore, Schwartz also coached the Ravens' outside linebackers.

He spent three years in the Cleveland Browns' personnel department, assisting in all phases of college scouting. During that time, Schwartz also served as both a college and pro scout with the Browns and assisted the defensive coaching staff with film breakdowns and scouting reports. Schwartz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90. He then served as secondary coach at the University of Minnesota (1990-91) and North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

A native of Baltimore, Md. (6/2/66), Schwartz was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Hoyas of Georgetown University, where he earned his degree in Economics. He also received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown and earned numerous honors in 1988, including CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, Division III All-America, NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar and team captain. An avid chess player, Jim and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Nashville, Tenn.

SHERMAN SMITH • RUNNING BACKS

Former Seattle Seahawks running back Sherman Smith is in his sixth year as the Titans' running backs coach. Smith joined the Oilers in 1995, after spending three seasons at the University of Illinois. At Illinois, Smith served as tight ends coach from 1992-93 and added running backs coach to his title in 1994.

A former standout during his collegiate career at Miami (Ohio) University, Smith coached the running backs at his alma mater for two seasons (1990-91) before moving to Illinois. After joining the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice in 1976, Smith went on to play nine years in the NFL. Smith led a fledgling Seahawk team in rushing in each of his first four seasons, finishing his Seattle tenure with 3,429 yards and 28 touchdowns on 810 attempts, as well as 210 receptions for 2,445 yards with 10 touchdowns. Smith left Seattle among the all-time rushers in Seahawks' history before closing his NFL playing career with the San Diego Chargers from 1983-84. As a quarterback at Miami (Ohio), Smith led the Redskins to the Mid-American Conference crown in his final three seasons while compiling a 33-1-1 record.

In 1984, Smith began teaching in the Northwest where he coached and taught at Redmond Junior High before returning to the college level as a coach in 1990. A native of Youngstown, Ohio (11/1/54), he and his wife, Sharon, have a daughter, Shavonne (20), a junior at the University of Tennessee, and a son, Sherman (18), a freshman at the University of Miami (Ohio).

STEVE WALTERS • WIDE RECEIVERS

Steve Walters, a 29-year veteran of coaching, including 17 in the NFL, enters his second season the Titans as wide receivers coach. Walters joined the Titans coaching staff in 1999 after spending two seasons as wide receivers coach with the New England Patriots.

Walters spent two coaching stints with New England. He began his NFL coaching career with New England in 1992, serving as defensive backs coach for three seasons before serving as wide receivers coach with the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons (1986-96). During his tenure in New Orleans, his wide receivers set the record for most single-season receptions in franchise history. Walters began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech in 1971. After two seasons, he accepted his first full-time position coaching receivers at Tampa University in 1973. He coached the defensive backs for two seasons (1974-75) at Northeast Louisiana before moving on to Morehead State as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. From 1977-78, Walters served as wide receivers coach at the University of Tulsa. In 1979, he coached quarterbacks at Memphis State before spending two seasons (1980-81) as secondary coach at Southern Methodist University under head coach Ron Meyer. Walters then moved to the NFL with New England after Meyer accepted the Patriots' head coaching position.

A native of Jonesboro, Ark. (6/16/48), Walters played defensive back at the University of Arkansas. He lettered in football, basketball and track at Springdale High in Arkansas. He earned his bachelor's degree at Arkansas and added his master's degree in physical education from Morehead State in 1976. Steve and his wife, Susan, are parents of two children: Kirk (20) and Kasey (17).

JIM WASHBURN • DEFENSIVE LINE

Jim Washburn enters his second season as the Titans defensive line coach. Last season, Washburn lit a fire under the Titans' defensive line as the defense established a new single-season club record of quarterback sacks with 54. The line was paced by All-Pro rookie Jevon Kearse, who led the entire conference in sacks with a rookie record 14.5. The club also enjoyed single-season career-high performances in DT Josh Evans, DE Henry Ford and DT Jason Fisk. Washburn joined the Titans as the defensive line coach after spending 1998 as the defensive line coach at the University of Houston. Washburn joined Houston after four seasons as the defensive line coach at the University of Arkansas from 1994-97. A 25-year coaching veteran, Washburn went to Arkansas after coaching the Charlotte Rage of Arena Football in 1993. He also served as defensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1992 after a year as their defensive line coach in 1991. Washburn held dual roles as head coach and defensive coordinator of the Charlotte Barons, leading the team to a national championship. Before entering the professional coaching ranks, Washburn was the defensive line coach at Purdue in 1989, at South Carolina from 1983-88 and at New Mexico from 1980-82. He began his coaching career as the strength and defensive line coach at Southern Methodist University in 1976. He then spent two seasons (1977-78) as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Lees McRae Junior College before moving to Livingston University as defensive coordinator in 1979.

A native of Shelby, N.C. (12/2/50), Washburn was a four-year letterman at Gardner-Webb College, where he earned his bachelor's in physical education in 1973. He added his master's degree from North Carolina A&T in 1975. Washburn and his wife, Sandy, have three children, Jeremiah, who is an offensive lineman at Arkansas, Brady, an offensive lineman at Clemson, and Jessica.

STEVE WATTERSON • STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

One of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL, Steve Watterson is in his 15th season as the Titans' strength and conditioning coach. In 1999, Steve was appointed to the National Research Council for Health (NRCH) Scientific Advisory Council. The NRCH maintains a highly qualified scientific advisory council comprised of health professionals across the country. NRCH was formed in 1977 to expand the scientific foundation and understanding of natural health science.

In 1992, Watterson received the greatest honor of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Titans and directs the club's successful off-season conditioning program. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before joining the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the head trainer at Tucson (AZ) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt credits Steve with his ability to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500. Steve currently advises NASCAR teams on training for proper biomechanics for their pit crews. As a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for AdvoCare Nutrition, Steve also advises Nascar teams such as Richard Petty's on proper supplementation for improved performance. Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, R.I. (11/27/56), Steve has two daughters, Kelsea (10) and Bergen (1), and two sons, Brock (4) and Cole (3).

CRAIG JOHNSON • OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/QUALITY CONTROL

Craig Johnson enters his first season as an NFL assistant coach as the Titans' offensive assistant quality control. He joined the Titans staff after spending the last three seasons as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Maryland. During that tenure, he also served as the Terps' offensive coordinator for two years (1997-98). In his last year at Maryland, the Terps led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense (235 yards per game avg.) and Johnson's quarterback Calvin McCall, was one of the top-rated freshman in the country. He served in the quarterback coach for five seasons at Northwestern University (1992-96). At NU, he was part of the first back-to-back Big 10 Conference champions (1995-96) in the school's history. Craig's quarterback Steve Schnur earned First-Team All Big 10 honors as a senior and posted a career-high 336 passing yard in the 1996 Rose Bowl against USC. In five years at NU, Johnson coached three All-Big 10 quarterbacks. Prior to his stint at Northwestern, Johnson served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons (1989-91) at Virginia Military Institute. Under Johnson, the VMI's offensive ranked fifth in the nation in total offense in 1990 and led in rushing offense in 1991.

He broke into college coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wyoming in 1983 before moving on to the University of Arkansas in 1984 in the same capacity. In 1985, he was a part-time assistant coach at Army, tutoring the fullbacks. Johnson then served as running backs coach for three seasons (1986-88) at Rutgers.

A native of Rome, N.Y. (3/3/60), Craig grew up in Aurora, CO. and earned three letters as a quarterback for the Cowboys, throwing for more than 1,100 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior in 1982. Johnson and his wife, Darlene, are parents of two daughters, Shelby and Sydney.

Dickerson is responsible for the day-to-day operations of both the Baptist Sports Park practice facility and all events at Adelphia Coliseum, including game-day operations. Tennessee is Dickerson's second stop in the NFL, as he spent five seasons (1988-92) as the Director of Operations with the Kansas City Chiefs. He joins the Titans after seven years with the Marriott Corporation in Kansas City. A native of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, Dickerson earned his B.A. in business from Kansas State and

M.S. in athletic administration from Wichita State University in 1980.

MEEKA GABRIEL • DIR. OF CHEERLEADING & ENTERTAINMENT

Meeka Gabriel is in her second season as the Titans' Director of Cheerleading and Entertainment. Gabriel is in charge of assembling and teaching the Spirit and Yell Leaders squad, as well as choreographing game day performances. She also directs the off-field performances by the Cheerleaders in the Nashville community and abroad, in addition to supervising T-RAC, the Titans' mascot. Gabriel joined the Titans in 1999 after spending three years as the Director of Choreography for the Universal Dance Association. Gabriel has been associated with the Company Dance Group, which is headed by Paula Abdul, and has directed Disney Parades and New Year's Day parades in both London and Paris. She has also choreographed pregame entertainment for both the Citrus and Outback Bowl games. A native of Memphis, (6/21/68), Gabriel is a graduate of the University of Memphis, where she was a member of the Tigers' award-winning dance team that won four national championships. Upon graduation, Gabriel spent five years dancing professionally in both New York and Los Angeles. Most recently, Meeka danced for the renowned Bobby Jones Gospel hour, which airs on BET, and choreographed for the Nashville Super Choir, under the direction of Bobby Jones. Gabriel lives in Nashville with her daughter, Salemah (5).

GARY GLENN • DIRECTOR OF INTERNET OPERATIONS & PUBLICATIONS

Gary Glenn enters his third season with the Titans and eighth overall in the NFL. The 32-year-old Glenn, who handles the club's web site and publication duties, was originally hired in June of 1998 as Publications/Internet Coordinator before being promoted this past off-season. He joined Tennessee after spending four seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (1994-98) as a public relations assistant. Glenn, who was recently named co-chairman of the NFL's new internet committee, broke into the League in 1989 as a public relations intern with the Washington Redskins. Two years later, he joined the Green Bay Packers for the 1991 campaign as a season-long intern. Prior to joining the Falcons, Glenn served a two-year stint as Assistant Sports Information Director at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington from 1992-94. His men's basketball program, "Hawks Hoops," was rated fourth-best in the country by the College Sports Information Directors of America among Division I schools. A native of Northern Virginia, Glenn received his B.A. in Communications in 1991 from George Mason University, where he served as Sports Editor of the university's newspaper. Single, he resides in Franklin, Tenn.

MIKE KEITH • DIRECTOR OF BROADCASTING

Mike Keith, the first "Voice of the Tennessee Titans", is the second-youngest (33) play-by-play announcer in the NFL. This season, he begins his second year as the Titans play-by-play announcer, but has been a part of the club's radio broadcasts since before the organization's arrival in Tennessee. In 1996, while the team was still in Houston, Keith hosted a pre-game show for Tennessee radio stations that carried Oilers games. Keith was the network's scoreboard host in 1997 before moving into the booth as a color analyst in 1998.

Along with his play-by-play duties, Keith continues to host the weekly Jeff Fisher radio show, handles many of the daily Titans radio updates and makes countless speeches on behalf of the Titans and Titans Radio. In May, 1998, Keith joined the Titans full-time as Director of Broadcasting. Previously, he spent over a decade in Knoxville for working for WIVK/WNOX radio, WBIR-TV and the Vol Radio Network. Keith won numerous awards while working in East Tennessee, including a '97 Edward R. Murrow Award. Born in Knoxville and raised in Franklin, Keith is a '91 graduate of the University of Tennessee (Political Science). He is married (Michelle) and has two children.

PAUL NOSKA • EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Paul Noska is in his fourth season as the Titans' Equipment Manager and 17th overall year with the organization. Nicknamed "Hoss," Noska originally joined the club in 1982 as an equipment assistant and has been a full-time member of the club's equipment department since 1983. Noska is responsible for the ordering and maintenance of all equipment and playing gear for the Titans throughout the season. He also handles the computer inventory of the team's equipment. A native of Houston, Noska and his wife, Terry, have one son, Randy Paul II (10).

RALPH OCKENFELS • DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

Ralph Ockenfels is in his third season with the Titans as the Director of Marketing. He is responsible for developing corporate sponsorship packages and retail promotions. He also is involved with game-day presentations and enhancements during Titans home games. Prior to joining the Titans, Ockenfels was the Assistant Director of Marketing for the Green Bay Packers from 1992-1998 after joining the team as an intern in 1991. During his tenure in Green Bay, Ockenfels served on the advance team for the Packers in Super Bowls XXXI and XXXII. A native of Iowa City, Iowa (12/12/66), Ockenfels earned his BA from the University of Northern Iowa and MS from Western Illinois University. Ralph and his wife, Jannette, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

STEVE REESE • DIRECTOR OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Steve Reese is in his 11th season as the Titans' Director of Information Systems. Reese is responsible for managing the organization's state-of-the-art computer and telecommunication systems. Steve also consults with many of K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s companies in the automotive, travel and ranching industries. In 1997, Reese was an originating member and chairman of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee which addresses a variety of league-wide technology issues. Prior to joining the Titans, Reese was a Manager at Arthur Andersen and Company where he worked in the real estate, environmental and health care industries. He was a founding member of the Business Systems Consulting Practice in Arthur Andersen's Detroit office that provides consulting services to high-growth companies. A native of Detroit (10/30/60), Reese ran track at Saginaw Valley State College, where he earned All-America honors. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Houston. Steve and his wife, Darleen, have two sons, Steven (12) and Matthew (11).

AL SMITH • DIR. OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/PRO PERSONNEL

Former All-Pro linebacker Al Smith is in his third season as the Titans' Director of Player Development/Pro Personnel. Smith assists the players in continuing their education and helping them in financial and family matters through player programs and is regarded as one of the top coordinators in the league. He and the Titans organization were awarded the 1998-99 most improved player development program in the NFL upon his arrival. Smith's other duties include scouting NFL Europe League and the Canadian Football League and other leagues along with the advance scouting of NFL opponents. A 10-year NFL veteran, Smith was the starting middle linebacker for the Houston Oilers his entire career, anchoring a defense that was considered by many to be the best ever assembled, making seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. He ended his playing career in 1997 after playing in 10 playoff games. He was elected team captain multiple years and earned Pro Bowl invitations following the 1991 and 1992 seasons. Smith was selected by the Oilers from Utah State in the sixth round (147th overall) of the 1987 NFL draft. He also is a member of the state of Utah's All-century team. A Native of Los Angeles, Calif., Smith starred for the Vikings of St. Bernards High in Playa Del Rey, Calif.

KEN SPARACINO • VIDEO DIRECTOR

Ken Sparacino is in his 18th season with the Titans and 15th as the team's Video Director. His responsibilities include the handling of all taping and production for the Titans' organization. Sparacino tapes all practices and games and then breaks down those tapes for the coaching staff to study. Sparacino attended Waltrip High in Houston and Stephen F. Austin State University. He worked part-time for the Oilers from 1983-85 in film production and cinematography. A native of Houston (6/15/47), Ken and his wife, Marilyn, have one son, Bobby (31), and a daughter, Angela (28).

STUART SPEARS • DIRECTOR OF SALES AND OPERATIONS

Stuart Spears is in his 14th season with the Titans and his third as Director of Sales and Operations. Spears primary responsibilities include the administration of the club's sales and advertising efforts and the coordination of all team travel and training camp activities. Spears began his tenure with the Oilers in 1987 in the ticket office. He worked in the ticket department for five years, finishing as the club's Assistant Director of Ticket Administration and Services until 1992, when he assumed the duties of Marketing and Broadcasting Assistant. He was promoted to Sales and Promotions Coordinator in 1995, playing a role in preparing for the team's relocation to Tennessee. He was actively involved in the promotion of luxury suite and personal seat license sales. He also worked on a wide range of operational and political activities. He moved to Tennessee in December of 1995 in order to prepare for the team's arrival in July, 1997. A native of Wilmington, Del., Spears (34) is a graduate of Baylor University with a BA degree in Journalism and Marketing. He and his wife Joyce reside in Franklin with their sons, Wesley (9) and Dustin (5).

BILL WAINWRIGHT • SUITE AND CLUB SERVICES MANAGER

Bill Wainwright enters his 10th season with the Titans and second as Suite and Club Services Manager. His primary responsibilities include the overall administration of Adelphia Coliseum's 162 corporate suites and nearly 12,000 club seats. He also serves as the team's principle contact in administering the leasing of the Coliseum's two 25,000-square foot club lounges. Wainwright entered professional sports as a summer intern with the Chicago White Sox in 1989 before joining the Houston Oilers the following year as an intern. He started full-time with the Oilers as a marketing assistant in 1991 and was shifted to an Oilers' ticket office assistant one year later. A native of Wheaton, IL (12/22/67), Wainwright graduated from DePauw University, where he was a member of the Tigers' nationally-ranked basketball and baseball teams, with a B.A. in Communications in 1990. Wainwright is engaged (Kim) and lives in Brentwood.

ROBBIE BOHREN • DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Robbie Bohren enters his fourth season with the Titans and first as Director of Media relations. Bohren is responsible for coordinating all football-related media coverage for the team. He is the liaison between the media, both local and national and the Titans' players, front office and coaches. Bohren originally joined the Titans in 1997, as the team's Assistant Director of Media Relations. Before joining Tennessee, Bohren worked for five years with the Nashville Sounds Baseball Club, the last three as Director of Public Relations. He also gained three years of experience in Vanderbilt University's Sports Information Department, while earning a degree in Economics from the university. Raised in Dallas, Bohren (12/14/69) broke into sports with an internship with the Texas Rangers in 1989. Robbie and his wife, Merrill, live in Nashville with daughter Catherine (3/19/00).

IN MEMORIAM

Ed Hughes

Head Coach, Houston Oilers

1971

Hughes went 4-9-1 as head coach of the Oilers during the 1971 season. He then worked as offensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys from 1973-76, helping to lead the team to three post-season appearances, including the 1976 Super Bowl. Hughes later moved on to the Chicago Bears as Mike Ditka's offensive coordinator in 1982, guiding an offense that included RB Walter Payton and QB Jim McMahon. The Bears swept through the playoffs en route to capturing a 46-10 victory over New England in the 1986 Super Bowl. Hughes was 72 and died of heart failure.

THREE-TIME WINNERS!

Tennessee became the first team in NFL history to defeat a team three times in one season, while winning the final game on the road. Overall, the Titans are the eighth team to sweep another team three times in one season. Six of the eight three-time winners came in the 1990's, with the New England Patriots (over Miami in 1997) and Green Bay Packers (over Tampa Bay in 1997) being the last teams to accomplish the feat prior the Titans this season.

OFF. TACKLE

PRO: Outstanding competitor with great size and long arms...mammoth size makes for ideal tackle, but versatile enough to play guard...during NFL career, registered 23 starts at right tackle and 15 at left guard...started 22 consecutive games dating back to 1998...signed with the Titans as an unrestricted free agent from St. Louis on Feb. 16, 2000 to fill void when Jon Runyan signed with Philadelphia...originally drafted by Rams in fifth round (141st overall) in 1996 draft.

A Boy And His Heroes

An Oilers fan growing up in Houston, Miller is excited to be joining his boyhood team. Said Miller of the experience, "It's definitely a thrill for me. As a young offensive lineman you sort of idolize Mike Munchak and Bruce Matthews. It's going to be a treat to go out there and play with them. That's everything that you could want in your football career."

1999: Started 16 games at right tackle for Rams offense that ranked first in the league in offense (400.8 yards/game) and ranked seventh in fewest sacks allowed (33)...offense produced seven 100-yard rushing games and nine 300-yard passing games...part of line that registered three sackless games (vs. Atlanta, vs. Carolina, vs. Chicago)...held All-Pro Defensive End Michael Strahan sackless against Giants

(12/19)...started all three playoff games at right tackle. 1998: Started 15 games at left guard and played on special teams...showed versatility when moved from right tackle to left guard in training camp...participated in 86.6 percent of total offensive plays...helped Rams rush for season-high 181 yards against Buffalo (9/20)...part of line that held Bears' (11/8) defense sackless. 1997: Played 15 games with seven starts at right tackle...earned 12th Man offense award from coaches...made first NFL start vs. New Orleans (8/31)...limited Reggie White to two tackles and no sacks at Green Bay (11/9). 1996: Played in 14 games as multi-purpose offensive lineman...handled snapping for field goals...played both tackle positions...played first NFL game on special teams against Washington (9/22).

COLLEGE: Started 41 of possible 44 collegiate games...two-time all-Southwest Conference selection...played in East-West Shrine game and Hula Bowl...majored in sociology.

PERSONAL: Married to Kim (12/28/96), couple lives in Brentwood, Tenn. with son Grant (9/22/99)...All-Greater Houston by at for the Eagles of Eisenhower H.S. in Aldine, Tex....participant in NFL's Punt, Pass and Kick as child...born Fred J. Miller Jr., Feb. 6, 1973, in Houston, Tex.

OFF TO A FLYING START

In the regular season this year, the Titans outscored their opponents, 113-44, in the first quarter of play this season. The Titans' 113 first-quarter points represented the second-highest total in the NFL behind only St. Louis (123). In contrast, Tennessee scored only 54 first-quarter points last season. The first quarter was also the Titans' best on defense, with opponents scoring only 44 points (2.8 points per game). Tennessee's first-quarter points allowed total was the second-best in the AFC, and the Titans allowed only five first-quarter touchdowns all season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2000

The Titans establishing a new NFL record for wins to open a stadium with two wins at Adelphia Coliseum. Tennessee was 8-0 last season in the first-year stadium. Three teams have opened stadiums with nine consecutive wins: Dallas (Texas Stadium, 1971), Akron Indians (League Park, 1920), Buffalo Bisons (Canisius Field, 1920).

Al Del Greco extending his franchise record of 942 career points. His NFL career point total of 1,466 is 9th on the NFL's all-time scoring list entering 2000 and fourth among active kickers. Del Greco can surpass Pat Leahy (8th with 1,470) and Eddie Murray (7th with 1,562) this season.

Jeff Fisher becoming the winningest coach in franchise history with 12 win this season, surpassing O.A. "Bum" Phillips, who won 59 games from 1975-80.

Eddie George becoming the only player in franchise history to gain 1,000 yards in each of their first four NFL seasons. George also would become the fifth running back in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards in each of their first five NFL seasons, joining Eric Dickerson, Tony Dorsett, Curtis Martin, and Barry Sanders.

Eddie George would join Eric Dickerson as the only two running backs in NFL history to run for 1,200 yards in each of their first five NFL seasons.

Eddie George extending his streak of consecutive starts, which currently stands at 64.

Bruce Matthews extending his club record streak of consecutive games played (200) and consecutive starts (197). Both streaks are the longest active streaks in the NFL.

Bruce Matthews extending the club record for most seasons as an Oiler/Titan by playing in his 18th season with the franchise.

Bruce Matthews earning his 13th Pro Bowl invitation. Only Reggie White has earned as many selections.

Bruce Matthews ranks 7th on the NFL's career games played list with 264 and can move into third place among non-kickers this season, surpassing his older brother, Clay, who played in 278 career NFL games. He would trail only George Blanda (340) and Jim Marshall (282) among non-kickers.

Steve McNair joining Warren Moon and George Blanda as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to throw for 3,000 passing yards twice in their career with the Titans/Oilers.

Marcus Robertson moving up the franchise's all-time career interception list. He enters the season in 10th place with 22 picks and within reach are Zeke Moore (24) in ninth, Ken Houston (25) in eighth, and Mike Reinfeldt (26) in seventh.

Yancey Thigpen extending his streak of 32 consecutive games with at least one reception.

Frank Wycheck joining Ken Burrough (led team 1974-79) as the only players in franchise history to lead the club in receptions for five consecutive seasons.

Frank Wycheck moving up the franchise's all-time receptions list. He enters the season in 7th place with 295 receptions and can move past Curtis Duncan (322, 1987-93) for 6th place.

Frank Wycheck moving into 7th place on the franchise's all-time receiving yards list, passing fellow tight end Tim Smith (3,107, 1980-86). Wycheck enters the season in 8th place with 3,097 yards.

Frank Wycheck extending his streak of 55 consecutive games with at least one reception.

Frank Wycheck extending his streak of consecutive starts with 70.

1999 SEASON

Game #1 • Sept. 12, 1999 • Adelphia Coliseum

Tennessee 36, Cincinnati 35

Quarterback Steve McNair led a dramatic fourth-quarter comeback which Al Del Greco capped off with a 33-yard field goal with eight seconds left to give the Titans a 36-35 victory over the Bengals in the first-ever regular season game at Adelphia Coliseum. The crowd of 65,272 witnessed an impressive first-half performance by the home team, as the Titans built a 26-7 first-half lead featuring two touchdown receptions by Kevin Dyson, who finished the game with nine catches for 162 yards. The Bengals then scored 28 unanswered points, paced by the passing and running of quarterback Jeff Blake, whose 90 yards rushing ranked him second in the AFC for the week. McNair's heroics took over late in the game, completing a 17-yard touchdown strike to Eddie George and subsequently leading a seven-play drive with under two minutes remaining that culminated in the 13th game-winning field goal of Del Greco's career.

Game #2 • Sept. 19, 1999 • Adelphia Coliseum

Tennessee 26, Cleveland 9

Neil O'Donnell assumed the starting quarterback role in place of the injured Steve McNair and turned in a stellar performance, completing 31 of 40 passes for 310 yards and one touchdown in a 26-9 Titans win. O'Donnell connected with Yancey Thigpen for the 10th touchdown between the two in their careers, and Eddie George rushed for 97 yards and two touchdowns as the Titans racked up 412 yards of total offense in the renewal of the series between the historical AFC Central Division opponents. The Browns and their prized rookie starting quarterback, Tim Couch, were held to zero yards of total offense in the first quarter and 32 yards at halftime, although the Browns did score their first touchdown since re-entering the league on a 39-yard strike from Couch to Kevin Johnson. The Titans owned the lead and the ball for the majority of the game, never trailing the Browns and holding the ball for 41 minutes and 20 seconds of this contest. Rookie Jevon Kearse turned in a dominant performance as well, recording three sacks of Couch, the most by a Titan since another rookie, Kenny Holmes, accomplished the feat against Arizona in 1997.

Game #3 • Sept. 26, 1999 • Alltel Stadium Tennessee 20, Jacksonville 19

Samari Rolle's end-zone interception of a Mark Brunell pass with less than a minute remaining allowed the visiting Titans to defeat Jacksonville, 20-19, for their ninth consecutive victory over an AFC Central Division opponent. A rain-soaked crowd of 61,502 witnessed an impressive ten-point, fourth-quarter comeback by the Titans, who took a 20-17 lead with 3:26 remaining on the first career touchdown catch by Michael Roan, a 12-yard reception from Neil O'Donnell. After trailing 3-0 at the half, the Titans took a third-quarter lead on a 12-yard touchdown reception by Eddie George. Jacksonville then scored 14 unanswered points, first on an 11-yard pass from Brunell to Jimmy Smith and then on an interception return by Aaron Beasley, who picked off an O'Donnell pass and ran 35 yards untouched into the end zone. Al Del Greco kicked two field goals for the Titans in the fourth quarter, and after Kenny Holmes picked off a Brunell pass, O'Donnell led the seven-play, 45-yard drive, that culminated in the Roan touchdown. The Jaguars mounted one last challenge, and driving to the Titan 3-yard line before Rolle's acrobatic interception allowed Tennessee to escape Jacksonville with its fourth victory in five attempts trips to the city.

Game #4 • Oct. 3, 1999 • 3Com Park San Francisco 24, Tennessee 22

San Francisco stopped a late comeback attempt by the Titans when Lee Woodall tackled Eddie George for a loss during a two-point conversion attempt, preserving a 24-22 49er victory for their 19th consecutive victory at home. Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a 32-yard touchdown strike with 1:45 remaining to narrow the 49er lead to two, after the visitors had trailed by a 24-13 count with four minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. The Titans scored the first 10 points of the game, including a career-long, 54-yard touchdown reception by Eddie George, who finished with 81 yards receiving yet was held to 26 yards on 15 carries on the ground. San Francisco starter Jeff Garcia, filling in for the injured Steve Young, ran for one touchdown and threw for another to give the 49ers a 14-10 lead. After the teams swapped field goals, the 49ers pulled ahead by 11 on a Terrell Owens touchdown reception. Yet for the second week in a row, O'Donnell led two fourth-quarter scoring drives, putting Tennessee in a position to send the game into overtime. O'Donnell finished with 355 yards passing, while Thigpen caught six passes for 143 yards. The loss prevented the Titans from their first 4-0 start in franchise history.

Tennessee 14, Baltimore 11

The Titans won their 10th consecutive game against an AFC Central opponent as the stingy Tennessee defense held the Baltimore Ravens to only three field goals in an 14-11 victory. The Ravens crossed the Titans' 20-yard line only once in the game, managing only 246 yards of total offense. Samari Rolle sacked Baltimore quarterback Stoney Case twice, and the Titans held Case to 15-of-37 passing and the AFC's leading rusher heading into the game, Erriett Rhett, to 59 yards on the ground. The Tennessee offense was led by the Neil O'Donnell-to-Yancey Thigpen combination, as the two connected for a 28-yard touchdown play in the third quarter which put the Titans ahead for good. Thigpen finished with five receptions for 99 yards, and O'Donnell's 216 yards passing allowed him to pass the 20,000-yard milestone for his career. The win allowed the Titans to remain in first place, and Tennessee has now won three consecutive games against Baltimore.

Tennessee 24, New Orleans 21

The Titans used 17 fourth-quarter points to complete a comeback win over the New Orleans Saints and improve their AFC-best record to 5-1. Neil O'Donnell threw two touchdown passes and Eddie George enjoyed the second-most prolific day of his career, rushing for 155 yards on 28 carries in the Tennessee victory. The Saints enjoyed a 10-0 half-time lead, but a Titan defensive stand as time ran out in the first half cost the home team an even greater advantage. New Orleans elected to try for the touchdown on a first and goal from the one with 12 seconds remaining in the second quarter, only to see the clock run out after Ricky Williams was stopped short of the end zone for no gain by Barron Wortham. New Orleans owned a 13-7 lead heading into the fourth quarter, but the Titans took the lead on a Kevin Dyson touchdown reception. Al Del Greco added the field goal, and Donald Mitchell's 42-yard interception return for a touchdown all but sealed the Tennessee victory, although the Saints managed a late touchdown. George clearly outdueled Williams in the matchup of former Heisman winners, outgaining the New Orleans rookie, 155 yards to 35.

Game #7 • Oct. 31, 1999 • Adelphia Coliseum

Tennessee 24, St. Louis 21

The Titans ended the Rams' quest for an undefeated season, using 21 first-quarter points to build a lead they would never relinquish in a 24-21 victory. Steve McNair returned to the lineup for the first time since the season-opener and threw for two touchdowns while running for another, completing 13 of 29 passes for 186 yards in the win. After Lorenzo Neal opened the scoring with a one-yard touchdown catch, Eddie George recorded his fourth touchdown reception of the season and McNair ran 10 yards for another score to give Tennessee a 21-0 lead late in the first quarter. The Rams charged back in the second half, scoring on their second play on a 57-yard touchdown reception by Marshall Faulk, who accounted for 184 yards of total offense on the afternoon. Kurt Warner threw for 328 yards and three touchdowns, but his two lost fumbles combined with 15 penalties to severely damage the Rams' chances. After Amp Lee caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from Warner and St. Louis recovered the ensuing onside kick, Warner drove the Rams down to the Tennessee 21-yard line with twelve seconds left. Jeff Wilkins subsequently missed the 38-yard field goal attempt, and the Titans ran out the clock for the victory. The Tennessee defense recorded six sacks in the ballgame, the most since a seven-sack effort in the win over Cleveland in Week 2.

Game #8 • Nov. 7, 1999 • Pro Player Stadium Miami 17, Tennessee 0

The Tennessee franchise was shut out for the first time since 1989, thanks to the efforts of a Miami defense led by cornerback Sam Madison, who picked off three Steve McNair passes in a 17-0 Dolphin victory. Quarterback Damon Huard remained undefeated while starting in place of the injured Dan Marino, throwing for 210 yards and two touchdowns, including a 43-yard scoring strike to Tony Martin. Miami began the scoring in the second quarter when Huard hit Stanley Pritchett for a six-yard touchdown, and the Martin score gave the Dolphins a 14-0 lead at halftime. The Tennessee offense failed to take advantage of any opportunities, and McNair's 205-yard passing day was overshadowed by the three Madison interceptions. The Titans outgained the Dolphins in total yards, 293 to 257, but the two-touchdown lead allowed Miami to revert to a primarily running-based attack in the second half. Tennessee's defense held Miami to season-low totals in both rushing yards and total yards, but the Dolphins' dominant defensive performance was the difference in the victory. The Dolphins improved their AFC-best record to 7-1 with the win, while the loss knocked the Titans out of first place and dropped their season mark to 6-2.

Eddie George ran for 123 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Titans to their 11th consecutive victory over an AFC Central opponent, a 24-14 win over the Bengals in Cincinnati. George scored from 23 and 12 yards out and carried a Tennessee offense that managed only 247 yards of total offense. The Titan defense shut down the Bengals for the majority of the game, holding standout running back Corey Dillon to 33 yards rushing on the afternoon. Cincinnati quarterback Jeff Blake was sacked seven times and the Bengals lost four fumbles in their fourth consecutive loss and fifth in six games against Tennessee. Jevon Kearse continued his dominant rookie season for the Titans, recording two sacks, five total tackles, two forced fumbles and two passes defended in the win. The victory improved the Titans to 7-2, the franchise's best start since 1991 and only the second time since 1975 the team has won as many as seven of its first nine games.

Tennessee 16, Pittsburgh 10

Steve McNair ran for two touchdowns and the Tennessee defense limited Pittsburgh to only a field goal after the first quarter in a 16-10 victory by the Titans, the 12th consecutive win by Tennessee over an AFC Central opponent. McNair has now run for two touchdowns four times in his career, and his two-yard score in the first quarter opened the scoring. After a Troy Edwards touchdown reception tied the score, McNair's three-yard touchdown run at the end of the first quarter gave the Titans a lead they never relinquished. The Titans added a safety in the third quarter on an intentional grounding call against Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart, and a 24-yard Kris Brown field goal for the Steelers with 6:55 remaining in the game ended the scoring for the day. A late Pittsburgh drive was halted by Kenny Holmes' second interception of the season, and the third-year defensive end also posted one of the Titans' five sacks of Stewart. The win was the fourth consecutive for the Titans over the Steelers, marking the first time in the history of the rivalry that the Tennessee franchise accomplished that feat.

Tennessee 33, Cleveland 21

The Titans won their 13th consecutive game over an AFC Central opponent, overcoming a 14-13 halftime deficit to defeat the Browns, 33-21. Steve McNair's 1-yard touchdown run early in the third quarter gave the Titans a 20-14 lead, and Derrick Mason's 65-yard punt return for a touchdown put the game out of reach. Eddie George broke his career record for touchdowns in one season with two touchdown runs, and the standout back rushed for 100 yards for the 21st time in his career, finishing with 113 yards rushing on 26 carries. Browns quarterback Tim Couch threw two touchdown passes, but the rookie was sacked by the dominant Tennessee pass rush seven times. The Titans held the Browns to 81 yards rushing, marking the sixth time this season the Titans have held their opponent under 100 yards on the ground in a game this season. Jevon Kearse's sack of Couch improved his total to 8.5 for the season, best among NFL rookies and ranking him tied for third in the AFC in that category. The Titans improved to 7-0 in the division and 9-2 overall, and are assured of their first winning season since 1993.

Game #12 • Dec. 12, 1999 • PSINet Stadium Baltimore 41, Tennessee 14

Tennessee suffered its worst loss since 1997 as the Baltimore Ravens used 24 second-half points to defeat the visiting Titans, 41-14. Baltimore quarterback Tony Banks threw for a career-high four touchdowns and 332 yards, and the Ravens' defense held Tennessee scoreless in the second half allowing Baltimore to pull away in the fourth quarter. The Ravens took an early lead on a six-yard touchdown reception by Jermaine Lewis, and Baltimore extended their 14-11 half-time lead on a one-yard touchdown catch by Justin Armour. Lewis' second touchdown reception of the game and the season put the game out of reach with 6:02 remaining, and Rod Woodson's ninth interception return for a touchdown of his career ended the scoring with the Ravens owning a 41-14 lead. Steve McNair threw for 288 yards but was picked off twice by Baltimore, and Baltimore defensive end Michael McCrary recorded 3.5 of the Ravens' five sacks of Tennessee quarterbacks. The loss snapped the Titans' 13-game AFC Central winning streak, and dropped Tennessee to 9-3.

Game #13 • Dec. 9, 1999 • Adelphia Coliseum

Tennessee 21, Oakland 14

Eddie George turned in one of the best performances of his career, rushing for 199 yards and two touchdowns as the Titans earned their 10th victory of the season with a 21-14 win over Oakland. George scored both of his touchdowns in the fourth quarter, scoring on consecutive drives from eight and 19 yards, with the latter coming on a third-and-18 play for the Titans. Steve McNair's touchdown run with 8:46 left in the third quarter broke a scoreless tie, but Oakland evened the score on their next possession on a 1-yard run by Zack Crockett. Oakland scored with four minutes remaining on a Rickey Dudley touchdown reception, and Oakland's defense held Tennessee on the ensuing possession. The Titans sealed the game, however, when Craig Hentrich's punt was fumbled by Darrien Gordon and recovered by Tennessee's Donald Mitchell, allowing the Titans to run out the clock and preserve their fifth consecutive home victory over the Raiders. George's 199-yard game was the 23rd 100-yard game of his career, and the standout running back also set a new career high for rushing touchdowns in a season with nine. The Titans improved to 10-3 and put themselves in prime position for a playoff berth with the victory.

Game #14 • Dec. 19, 1999 • Adelphia Coliseum

Tennessee 30, Atlanta 17

The Tennessee franchise clinched its first playoff berth since 1993, thanks to a stifling defense that forced six turnovers in a 30-17 victory in front of 66,196 at Adelphia Coliseum, where the team is now 7-0. Jevon Kearse tied the NFL record for sacks by a rookie, while Dainon Sidney's two interceptions paced a dominating Titans defense which picked off Falcon quarterbacks three times and recovered three Atlanta fumbles. Steve McNair both ran and threw for a touchdown, completing 15 of 29 passes for 216 yards while leading the Titans with 76 yards rushing. Chris Sanders posted the eighth 100-yard receiving yard game of his career, and opened the scoring with a 48-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter. After the first of two Jammi German touchdown receptions allowed the Falcons to tie the score, tight end Frank Wycheck's first-ever NFL pass found a wide-open Isaac Byrd for a 61-yard score, giving the Titans a lead they never relinquished. Atlanta cut the lead to 20-17 on a Morten Andersen field goal late in the third quarter, but McNair's three-yard touchdown run headlined a 10-point fourth quarter which sealed Tennessee's 11th win of the season.

Game #15 • Dec. 26, 1999 • Adelphia Coliseum

Tennessee 41, Jacksonville 14

The Tennessee franchise completed the first 8-0 home season in franchise history by defeating the visiting 13-1 Jacksonville Jaguars, 41-14, in front of 66,641 fans at Adelphia Coliseum. Steve McNair threw a career-high of five touchdown passes and finished 23-of-33 passing for 291 yards, opening the scoring with a 4-yard pass to Michael Roan in the first quarter. McNair then found Jackie Harris for a 62-yard touchdown strike, and after an Al Del Greco field goal, Jacksonville scored on a 1-yard run by Fred Taylor. The Titans owned a 24-7 lead, thanks to a 2-yard touchdown reception by Yancey Thigpen. Kearsse broke the NFL's single-season record for sacks by a rookie. McNair threw touchdown passes to Isaac Byrd and Kevin Dyson in the third quarter, and the Tennessee defense shut down the Jacksonville offense, holding Jaguar quarterbacks Mark Brunell and Jay Fiedler to only 12 completions on 33 passing attempts, and running back Taylor to 44 yards rushing. Samari Rolle recorded three interceptions for the Titans, while Eddie George posted his fifth 100-yard game of the season. The win clinched a home playoff game for the Titans for the first time since 1993, and kept the Titans alive in the race for the AFC Central Division crown.

Game #16 • Jan. 2, 2000 • Three Rivers Stadium

Tennessee 47, Pittsburgh 36

In the highest-scoring game of the season in the NFL, the Tennessee Titans won their franchise-record 13th game of the season with a 47-36 win at Pittsburgh. Steve McNair completed nine of 11 passes for 107 yards in limited action and opened the scoring with a nine-yard touchdown strike to Frank Wycheck. Neil O'Donnell played the majority of the game at quarterback and tossed two touchdown passes, and the Titans scored two defensive touchdowns on fumble recoveries, the first by Jevon Kearse and a fourth-quarter, game-clinching 83-yard return for a score by Denard Walker. Pittsburgh stormed back to within striking distance after being down 40-15, and a goal-line stand by the Titans to open the fourth quarter prevented the Steelers from cutting the lead even closer. The win gave Tennessee a sweep over the Steelers in consecutive years for the first time, and the Titans' 47 points are the most the franchise has scored against Pittsburgh in the rivalry's storied history.

AFC Wild Card Playoff Game

Jan. 8, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 22, Buffalo 16

One of the most memorable finishes in NFL playoff history gave the Tennessee Titans the franchise's first playoff win since 1991, a 22-16 stunner over the visiting Buffalo Bills. After Steve Christie kicked a 41-yard field goal to give Buffalo a 16-15 lead with 16 seconds remaining, the Titans' Kevin Dyson returned a Frank Wycheck lateral on the ensuing kickoff 75 yards for a touchdown, scoring with three seconds left in the game. The play, termed by many as the "Music City Miracle," gave Tennessee a 22-16 lead that turned into a victory after Buffalo's last-ditch hopes for a matching return touchdown were thwarted. The Titans took a 12-0 lead into intermission, but the Bills stormed back with a five-play drive capped off by the first of two Antowain Smith touchdown runs. Smith's second score gave the Bills a 13-12 lead with 11:08 remaining, a one-point advantage that stood until late in the game. Tennessee quarterback Steve McNair led a 10-play drive which culminated with an Al Del Greco field goal with 1:48 remaining, a 36-yard boot that gave the Titans a short-lived 15-13 advantage, taken away shortly thereafter by Christie's field goal. The Titans managed only 76 yards passing, but running back Eddie George paced the offense with a 29-carry, 106-yard performance. The victory, in front of a franchise-record crowd at Adelphia Coliseum, allowed the Tennessee franchise to advance to the AFC Divisional Playoffs for the first time since 1993.

AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Jan. 16, 2000 • RCA Dome
Tennessee 19, Indianapolis 16

The Tennessee Titans advanced to their first AFC Championship Game since 1979 with a 19-16 victory at the RCA Dome over the Indianapolis Colts. Eddie George shattered the franchise record for rushing yards in a playoff game, gaining 162 yards and one touchdown on 26 carries. George's 68-yard touchdown run on the first drive of the third quarter gave the Titans the lead for good, and the Tennessee defense held rookie standout Edgerrin James to only 56 yards rushing on 20 carries. Al Del Greco set franchise postseason records for field goals in a game and a career, kicking two of his four field goals in each half and giving him 11 for his career. The Colts held a 9-6 advantage at halftime thanks to three Mike Vanderjagt field goals, but the Tennessee offense scored 13 unanswered points to give the Titans a 10-point lead late in the game. The Colts scored with 1:51 remaining on a 15-yard touchdown run by quarterback Peyton Manning, but Tennessee's Yancey Thigpen sealed the Titan victory by recovering Danny Knight's ensuing onside kick. Indiana native Blaine Bishop led the inspired Tennessee defense with 11 tackles and two passes defensed, and the defensive unit as a whole held Manning in check, with the second-year signal-caller completing only 19 of 43 passes for 227 yards in the loss. Including the final four games of the regular season, the Titans are riding a six-game winning streak into the AFC Championship Game at Jacksonville.

AFC Championship Game

Jan. 23, 2000 • Alltel Stadium
Tennessee 33, Jacksonville 14

The Tennessee Titans advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in franchise history by defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars for the third time this season, 33-14 at Jacksonville's Alltel Stadium. Quarterback Steve McNair ran for 91 yards and two second-half touchdowns, combining with Eddie George for 177 yards rushing on the afternoon. The Titans' defense turned in a dominant performance, forcing six Jacksonville turnovers, including two fumbles and two interceptions from quarterback Mark Brunell. The Jaguars opened the scoring with a seven-yard touchdown reception by Kyle Brady, but Tennessee answered on the next drive, scoring on a nine-yard scoring catch by playoff veteran Yancey Thigpen. Jacksonville took the lead on what would their final score of the day, a 33-yard touchdown run by James Stewart. The Titans then scored 26 unanswered points, including an Al Del Greco 34-yard field goal that cut the Jaguar lead to 14-10 at halftime. McNair scored on a 1-yard run with 9:24 remaining in the third quarter, and after Mark Brunell was dropped for a safety, Derrick Mason ran the ensuing free kick 80 yards for a touchdown. Mason's score gave Tennessee a 12-point lead that the Jaguars never seriously threatened, and McNair scored his second touchdown of the game with seven minutes remaining, ending the scoring with the Titans holding a 33-14 advantage. The win gave Tennessee its first AFC Championship since the AFL-NFL merger, and sent the Titans up against the St. Louis Rams in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Jan. 30, 2000 • Georgia Dome
St. Louis 23, Tennessee 16

The Titans' magical season ended at the Georgia Dome, with receiver Kevin Dyson stopped just short of the goal line on the game's last play by St. Louis linebacker Mike Jones in a 23-16 Rams victory. The play ended an inspired two-minute drive led by quarterback Steve McNair, who broke Super Bowl records for rushing yards by a quarterback in both one game and one play for the Titans. The Rams held a 9-0 lead at half-time, extending the lead to 16-0 on a nine-yard touchdown reception by Torry Holt with 7:20 left in the third quarter. The Titans charged back on two touchdown runs by Eddie George, and tied the score at 16 on a 43-yard Al Del Greco field goal with 2:12 remaining. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Isaac Bruce broke free and scored on a 73-yard touchdown pass from Kurt Warner, giving the Rams the seven-point advantage they never relinquished. McNair then led a 12-play, 87-yard drive that culminated in the completion to Dyson. McNair's prolific day included 64 yards rushing on eight carries, while St. Louis quarterback Kurt Warner set a new Super Bowl record with 414 yards passing. George became the Titans' career postseason rushing leader following a 95-yard rushing day, while tight end Jackie Harris led Tennessee with seven catches for 64 yards.

Adams Creates Official Team Hall of Fame

could get a feel for our proud past, but also a place where our outstanding Titans players can be honored in the future."

Adams has selected DE Elvin Bethea, QB George Blanda, RB Earl Campbell, Vice-President/General Manager/Scout Mike Holovak, S Ken Houston, G Mike Munchak, and S/P Jim Norton to be admitted into the inaugural class of 1999. All six players have either been inducted into the NFL's Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio or had their jersey number retired by the club.

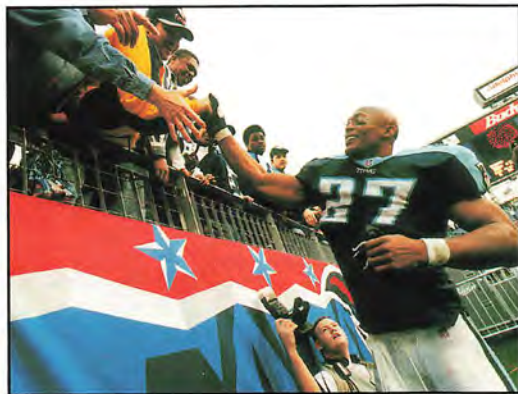

In recognition of the 40th season of the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers' organization, team owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., unveiled an official team hall of fame during the 1999 season that features players and staff from the past and creates a special place for Titans' stars of the future to be recognized.

The Tennessee Titans Hall of Fame will open its doors this season and will be located on the East side of Adelphia Coliseum, adjacent to the club's ticket office.

"This is something my wife, Nancy, and I have wanted to do for quite some time," Adams said. "We wanted to have a permanent place where our fans

Titans fans voted best in the NFL in 1999

Pro Football Weekly recognized Tennessee Titans fans as the best fans in the NFL, in an article last fall.

Titans head coach Jeff Fisher awarded fans at Adelphia Coliseum the "game ball" following the team's 24-21 victory against the previously-unbeaten St. Louis Rams on Oct. 31, 1999.

The game ball will be displayed in the lobby of the Titans' practice facility at Baptist Sports Park.

Titans fans were described in the article as being a "savvy crowd" that knew when to be loud when the Titans were on defense, yet turn silent when they were on offense.

"We talked about the 12th man, and they were a huge difference in that ball game," Fisher said of those in attendance. "Entering the season, I felt that Adelphia Coliseum would quickly develop into a major home-field advantage for us. That was certainly the case last season. I want to thank the fans for their effort and encourage them to keep up the pace during the 2000 campaign"

Oilers to Titans – A Look Back in Time

Titans Owner K.S. “Bud” Adams, Jr., made it official at this press conference, signing the paperwork that would bring the Oilers to Nashville. Adams presented Nashville Mayor Phil Bredeesen with an Oilers jersey. Nashville voters later approved a referendum (May 7, 1996) in which Davidson County voters approved public funding for a new downtown stadium.

Adams announced during the 1998 training camp that the Oilers would have a new team name beginning in 1999. He joined NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and head coach Jeff Fisher in telling the players.

The anticipation ended Nov. 14, 1998 when Adams announced at the new stadium site that the Oilers would be called the Tennessee Titans beginning in 1999. It was a long process that included input from fans across the region and an advisory council that met with Adams on a regular basis.

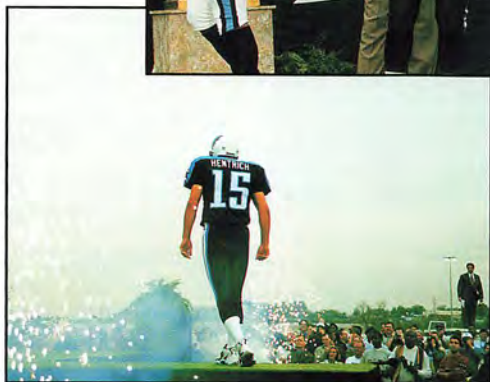

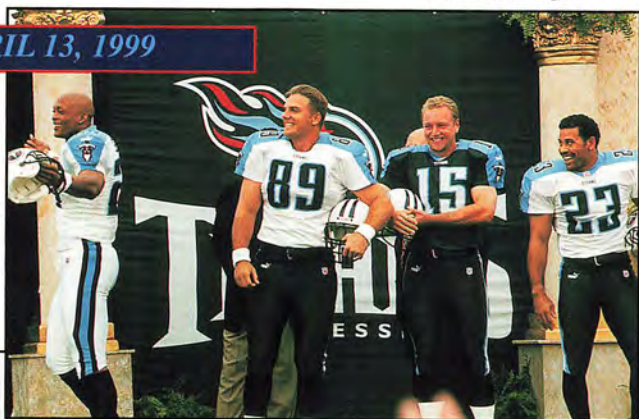

DECEMBER 22, 1998

Adams unveiled the Titans logo Dec. 22, 1998 at the Parthenon at Centennial Park in Nashville with the assistance of Governor Don Sundquist. Local television stations broadcasted the event live, and hundreds of fans showed up to get a peak of the team's new logo.

The team's uniform unveiling on April 13, 1999 drew a festive crowd of nearly 2,000 people at the new stadium. Above, from L to R: Eddie George, Frank Wycheck, Craig Hentrich and Blaine Bishop model the new Titans look before spirited fans. Hentrich was greeted by fireworks as he crossed the stage.

THE ORIGIN OF NFL TEAM NICKNAMES

TITANS — On November 14, 1997, owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announces that Tennessee's NFL franchise would change its name to Titans for the 1999 season. The franchise was known as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96, then as the Tennessee Oilers in 1997 and 1998 after relocating to Nashville. "Titans come from early Greek mythology and the fact that Nashville is known as the 'Athens of the South' makes the Titans name very appropriate," said Adams. The Titans logo and color scheme are revealed at a statewide press conference on December 22, 1998. The logo features the fire of the Titans, exemplifying the characteristics of power, strength, knowledge and excellence. It also includes three stars, representing the state of Tennessee. The color scheme features navy blue, red, silver and Columbia blue, the latter providing a link to the team's past. "I feel we have developed a logo that fans throughout the state of Tennessee and around the country will embrace for years to come," Adams said. "It is a logo worthy of the nickname and of the brand of football I hope our team will play next year."

BEARS — George Halas moved the Decatur Staleys to Chicago in 1921. The Staleys played at Wrigley Field, the home of baseball's Cubs. Halas determined that if the baseball tenants were Cubs, then his more rugged gridiron combatants should be known as the Bears.

BENGALS — Paul Brown chose this nickname for Cincinnati's 1968 AFL expansion team because there had been earlier football teams in the city called the Bengals. The elder Bengals were members of the AFL in 1937, competed as an independent club in 1938, then played in a new AFL from 1939-41 before the league again folded.

BILLS — The nickname refers to William F. Cody, who was known as "Buffalo Bill." Buffalo had a football team called the Bisons, but the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams had the same name. The football team held a contest to select a new nickname following the 1946 season. More than 4,500 entries were submitted and Bills beat out Bullets, Nickels and Blue Devils.

BRONCOS — This nickname was also selected through a contest in January of 1960. Broncos was the winner, referring to Denver's Wild West heritage. Denver's 1921 entry in the Midwest Baseball League team was also named the Broncos.

BROWNS — Cleveland's All-American Football Conference entry was founded in 1946. Paul Brown was named the team's first coach and general manager. The Browns moved to Baltimore in 1996, but the team's history remained, paving the way for the Browns to be resurrected as an expansion team in 1999.

BUCCANEERS — This name defeated more than 400 entries in a radio-sponsored competition, held one month after Tampa was awarded the first of two expansion franchises on April 24, 1974. Buccaneers was the winner, beating out such noble competitors as Buzzards, Sea Horses and (yes) Mafia.

CARDINALS — A football club on the southwest side of Chicago was formed in 1898. The team was known as the Normals until 1901, when founder Chris O'Brien secured some hand-me-down jerseys from the University of Chicago. The jerseys were actually maroon, but the color had faded, striking O'Brien as more of a cardinal tint. The team became the Racine Cardinals, keeping the nickname as the club moved from Chicago (1922) to St. Louis (1960) and, finally, to Phoenix (1988).

CHARGERS — The Los Angeles AFL franchise held a contest in 1960. Hollywood resident Gerald Courtney was awarded an all-expenses-paid trip to Mexico City and Acapulco after submitting Chargers. Three reasons for choosing Chargers have been offered — it sounded dynamic; the club's new stationary featured a horse; and owner Baron Hilton had recently instituted the Carte Blanche card. The team kept the name when it moved to San Diego the following year.

CHIEFS — This original AFL franchise was originally the Dallas Texans but relocated to Kansas City. Owner Lamar Hunt picked Chiefs as a nickname to honor Kansas City mayor Roe “The Chief” Bartle for his efforts in securing the team. Bartle promised to enlarge Kansas City’s Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as his club had in Dallas.

COLTS — In 1946, the Miami Seahawks of the All-American Football Conference were relocated to Baltimore. Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., won a name contest by submitting Colts. His reasoning? “Colts are the youngest entry in the league, Maryland is famous for its race horses and it is short, easily pronounced and fits well in newspaper headlines.” The franchise kept the name when it moved to Indianapolis in 1984.

COWBOYS — This name might seem like an easy choice in Dallas, but Rangers was actually the first name suggested. The club went with Cowboys since Rangers might cause confusion with a local minor-league team of the same name.

DOLPHINS — After Miami was awarded an AFL expansion franchise in 1965, a contest was held to determine the name. A dozen names were forwarded to a seven-member screening committee of local media and Dolphins was the runaway winner. Although 622 entrants submitted Dolphins, Mrs. Robert Swanson of Miami won the two lifetime passes to Dolphins games. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of a 1965 tilt between Notre Dame and the University of Miami. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

EAGLES — The NFL’s Frankford Yellowjackets were awarded to a syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray in 1933. Bell named the new Philadelphia team Eagles in honor of the symbol of the New Deal’s National Recovery Act.

FALCONS — Atlanta held a contest in 1965 and many chose Falcons for the NFL’s newest team. The best argument was submitted by Julia Elliot, a teacher from Griffin, Ga. — “the Falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops its prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition.”

49ers — Owner Anthony J. Morabito chose 49ers for his All-America Football Conference squad because it reflected San Francisco’s link to the California Gold Rush. The 49ers kept the name when they joined the NFL in 1950.

GIANTS — In 1925, Tim Mara purchased New York’s first professional football team for a reported $500. Mara decided on Giants because his team would play at the Polo Grounds, the home of baseball’s New York Giants. The original Giants derived their name from the city’s giant buildings.

JAGUARS — Jacksonville held a contest in 1991, two years before the city was awarded the NFL’s 30th franchise. Jaguars claimed the majority of votes, besting a group that included Sharks, Stingrays and (ironically) Panthers.

JETS — New York’s AFL squad was originally the Titans. In 1963, after three seasons, a five-man syndicate bought the franchise. On the same day they hired Weeb Ewbank, the owners announced that they were changing the team’s name to Jets. It sounded like New York’s baseball Mets and LaGuardia Airport was nearby.

LIONS — Detroit radio executive George Richards purchased the NFL's Portsmouth Spartans and moved them to the Motor City in 1934. Richards chose Lions. Felines were already prevalent in Detroit. Baseball could claim the Tigers and a Detroit football team called the Panthers had folded after two years in 1927.

PACKERS — In 1919, Earl "Curly" Lambeau and George Calhoun pieced together a group in the Green Bay Press-Gazette editorial room with the notion of starting a football team. Lambeau's employer at the Indian Packing Company — Frank Peck — provided jerseys, equipment and use of its athletic field for practice. Early on, the club was identified as a project of the company, hence Packers became a natural fit.

PANTHERS — The nickname for Carolina's 1995 expansion team was selected by team president Mark Richardson, the son of owner Jerry Richardson. The younger Richardson also chose the Panthers' colors of Panther blue, silver and black.

PATRIOTS — A group of New England sportswriters picked Patriots as a tribute to Patriot Day, which celebrates Paul Revere's ride.

RAIDERS — In 1960, Oakland held a contest to pick a name for its AFL team. The fans chose Senors, but Oakland management opted for Raiders.

RAMS — In 1936, Cleveland's new AFL franchise decided to take its name from one of the top collegiate teams of the era, the Fordham Rams. The Rams name stuck with eventual moves to Los Angeles (1946) and St. Louis (1995).

RAVENS — After a 12-year void, Baltimore again acquired an NFL team in 1996 when the Cleveland Browns relocated. Owner Art Modell allowed the Browns' name, colors and history to remain in Cleveland. Baltimore then set up focus groups and fan polls to help secure a new name. Ravens won out over Americans and Marauders. The name refers to the mythical bird in Edgar Allan Poe's poem "The Raven." Poe lived and died in Baltimore.

REDSKINS — George Marshall headed a syndicate that purchased an NFL team for Boston in 1933. The team would play at the home of baseball's Boston Braves so it adopted the same name. The following year, the Braves moved to Fenway Park and changed their name to the Redskins. The name remained when the team moved to Washington in 1937.

SAINTS — The New Orleans NFL franchise was awarded on All Saints Day (Nov. 1) in 1966. Plus, the song "When the Saints Go Marchin' In" is often associated with the city of New Orleans.

SEAHAWKS — In a 1975 contest, Seattle's expansion franchise received 20,365 entries, extolling 1,741 different names. Seahawks, a name denoting the city's link to the sea, was on 151 ballots.

STEELERS — Pittsburgh's professional football team (founded in 1933) was, like its baseball neighbors, initially dubbed the Pirates. In 1940, owner Art Rooney changed the name to Steelers, reflecting the city's ties to the steel industry. The name was allegedly suggested by the wife of the team's ticket manager.

VIKINGS — General manager Bert Rose recommended Vikings to Minnesota's Board of Directors in 1960. The name represent both an aggressive person and the Nordic tradition inherent in the region.

Information compiled from NFL team media guides and The Complete Book of Sports Nicknames.

1981 – Quarterback George Blanda (1960-66)

Blanda was the offensive catalyst for the explosive Oiler squads of the early 1960s. He played quarterback and handled the placekicking chores in Columbia blue for seven of his NFL-record 26 seasons in the league. Blanda was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of those seven seasons and still owns franchise records for most extra points (299), most touchdown passes in a season (36) and most touchdown passes in a game (7). He is also second in points scored with 596. The 36 scoring tosses stood as an NFL record for an astounding 23 years. Blanda's NFL career records include most games (340), most points (2,002) and most extra points (943). And, perhaps most importantly to Oilers fans, Blanda captained the Oilers to two consecutive AFL titles in 1960 and 1961. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

1986 — Safety Ken Houston (1967-72)

Houston is still considered one of the best safeties in football history. He picked off 49 passes over his 14-season NFL career and earned Pro Bowl honors 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL). Houston returned an NFL-record nine interceptions for a touchdown in his six seasons as an Oiler. Four of those scores came in 1971, which ties an NFL record. He returned two in one game against San Diego in the 1971 season finale, which also ties an NFL mark. Houston also holds the Oilers record for most career interception return yards with 650. Originally a ninth-round draft choice out of Prairie View A&M, Houston played his final eight seasons with the Washington Redskins. He played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm at the New York Giants on November 25, 1979. Houston was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

1991 — Running Back Earl Campbell (1978-84)

Perhaps the most recognizable Oiler, Campbell has a monopoly on the team rushing record book. Campbell, fresh off a Heisman Trophy campaign at the University of Texas, was the top pick in the 1978 NFL Draft and dazzled his audience from the outset. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He also holds team records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5). He finished his career in New Orleans. In addition, Campbell is one of just four people officially designated a Texas Legend by the Texas State Legislature. The others are Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin. Campbell is the only designee this century. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

1996 — Wide Receiver Charlie Joiner (1969-72)

Joiner played 18 seasons in the NFL, his first four with the Oilers. One of the league's most prolific receivers, he amassed 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. Joiner caught 82 of those passes as an Oiler, totaling 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns. He paced the squad with 681 yards and seven touchdown grabs in 1971. Joiner was traded to Cincinnati in 1972, then moved on to San Diego in 1976, where he flourished in the Chargers' wide-open passing attack until 1986. Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996, then ranking fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yardage on the NFL's all-time list.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

In the 38-year history of the Oilers/Titans franchise, only four players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired — Jim Norton (No. 43); Elvin Bethea (No. 65); Earl Campbell (No. 34); and Mike Munchak (No. 63).

Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the club record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton is tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the 1968 season opener and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November, 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands third in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea currently holds the Oiler record for most seasons played (16, 1968-83), while his 210 games played (1968-83) stands second. Bethea led the team in quarterback sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on August 4, 1983.

63

Campbell, the Oilers' all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on August 13, 1987. His numerous gridiron exploits are chronicled in the Hall of Fame section.

65

Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in 1982 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman selected in the draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is tied for third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980s and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He ranks second in club annals with nine Pro Bowl selections, seven as a starter. Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announced that jersey No. 63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on November 6, 1994.

TEAM UNIFORM/LOGO HISTORY

The Oilers/Titans uniforms have been through several changes since the team's inception in 1960. The original Oilers helmet, circa 1960, was blue with a white stripe down the middle. The oil derrick logo was also white. Although the derrick itself has remained, many subtle changes have been made to the helmets in the past 39 seasons. In 1964, two red stripes were added to the white striping on top of the helmet. Two years later, the helmet color was changed to silver with red and blue striping. The derrick was changed to blue with a red outline and white background.

In 1972, the Oilers donned blue helmets.

In 1975, the Oilers helmet was switched to the familiar white.

The Oilers switched their face mask to red in 1983.

The team used this transition logo from 1997-98 when the team moved to Tennessee.

In 1972, the helmet color was switched back to blue, with red and white striping. The derrick was changed to white with a red outline. Three years later, the helmet color was changed to its familiar white with red and blue striping. The derrick was then switched to blue with a red outline. The helmets boasted a gray facemask. In 1983 the facemask was switched to red.

The Oilers created a transition logo that included an oil derrick and three stars, representing the three regions of Tennessee, when the club moved to Nashville. That logo remained in place for two years until the Oilers became the Titans in 1999. With the new name, the club took on a new, modern-day look that pleased the fans of Tennessee. The team's new logo features the fire of the Titans and exemplifies the characteristics of power, strength, knowledge and excellence. The three stars represent the state of Tennessee. The color scheme – Columbia blue, navy and red with an accent of silver retained a link to the team's past, while providing a sleek look that brought the organization into the 21st century.

The Titans primary logo (above) features the fire of the Titans. The three stars represent the state of Tennessee. The secondary sword logo (left) is worn as a patch on the shoulder pads of players' jerseys.

Record*8-0 (regular season) 1-0 (playoffs)

First Game9/12/99 — Tennessee 36, Cincinnati 35 (65,272)

Last Game1/8/00 — Tennessee 22, Buffalo 16 (66,782)

Highlights: The Tennessee Titans recorded an undefeated 9-0 season at home in 1999. Adelphia Coliseum opened its doors in the national spotlight with a preseason victory over the Atlanta Falcons on Aug. 27 in which country music star Faith Hill sang the National Anthem. Tennessee opened the regular season with a come-from-behind 36-35 victory over Cincinnati. But the most memorable victory of the season came in a 22-16 Wild Card victory over Buffalo on Jan. 8, 2000. In that game, Kevin Dyson fielded a lateral pass from Frank Wycheck with 16 seconds left and raced 75 yards down the sideline for the winning score. That play, which propelled Tennessee into an AFC Divisional showdown at Indianapolis the following week, was immediately dubbed "The Music City Miracle" and will go down as one of the most memorable moments in NFL history.

September 23—The Oilers win their 1990 home opener 24-10 over the Indianapolis Colts as QB Warren Moon becomes the all-time leading passer in club history. Moon throws for 308 yards (plus three TDs) to surpass George Blanda's team record of 19,149 yards. The record fell on a third quarter seven-yard pass to WR Haywood Jeffries. WR Drew Hill catches ten passes for 123 yards to help key the victory.

September 30—The Oilers capture their first road win of the season, defeating the Chargers 17-7 as QB Warren Moon throws for 355 yards, and WR Drew Hill records his 50th career touchdown. Moon's 27 completions allows him to pass Dan Pastorini's club record of 1,426.

October 14—QB Warren Moon passes for 369 yards and a career-best five TDs as the Oilers hammer the Cincinnati Bengals 48-17. Moon thus becomes the first player in pro football history to throw for over 20,000 yards in two different leagues (21,228 in Canadian Football League).

December 2—Despite losing 13-10 in overtime at Seattle, QB Warren Moon's 232 passing yards allow him to break his own single-season club passing record of 3,631 yards (set in 1989).

December 9—The Oilers shatter several team records while drubbing Cleveland 58-14. Included among the records set are most points in a game, in a quarter (31) and in a half (45). RB Lorenzo White ties a club mark with four rushing touchdowns, the first time that has been accomplished in the NFL in two years.

December 16—The Oilers win a key road game, beating Kansas City 27-10 at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Warren Moon again supplies the big news, completing 27-of-45 passes for 527 yards. That represents the second-best single-game passing performance in NFL history. The record belongs to the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin, who threw for 554 yards against the New York Yanks on September 28, 1951. Moon had an opportunity to break the record but declined to do so based on the Oilers' comfortable lead. Almost overshadowed by Moon's effort was WR Haywood Jeffries catching nine balls for 245 yards (including 87-yard TD), which marked the second best receiving day in Oiler history. Charles Hennigan had 272 receiving yards versus the Patriots on October 13, 1961.

December 19—Six Oilers are named to the AFC squad for the February 3 Pro Bowl. The six include starters G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak, plus reserves DT Ray Childress, WR Ernest Givins and WR Drew Hill.

December 23—The Oilers lose an opportunity to cement their grasp on first place in the AFC Central Division by losing at Cincinnati 40-20. Additionally, QB Warren Moon is lost for the remainder of the season after suffering an open dislocation of his throwing thumb.

December 29—Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams and San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell jointly announce a tentative agreement for the Oilers to hold their annual summer training camp in San Antonio. Also, it is announced that the Oilers will serve as the host team for preseason games in San Antonio's Alamodome when that facility is completed in 1993.

December 30—Led by backup QB Cody Carlson, the Oilers earn a Wild Card playoff berth by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-14 in the Astrodome. Carlson completes 22 of 29 passes for 247 yards and three TDs. With the victory, the Oilers end up in a three-way tie for first place with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in the AFC Central.

January 6—The Oilers' 1990 season comes to a close as they are eliminated from the playoffs by the Cincinnati Bengals. Houston loses at Riverfront Stadium 41-14 in an AFC Wild Card game.

January 26—It is announced that Earl Campbell has been voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The announcement is made in Tampa, Florida. Campbell is to be enshrined on July 27.

May 17—The Oilers and the City of San Antonio formally sign six-year contract which will allow the Oilers to hold training camp there. Trinity University is chosen as the host school.

September 16—In a pre-game ceremony, Earl Campbell receives his Hall of Fame ring from Hall Executive Director Pete Elliott. In the game that follows, the Oilers defeat Kansas City 17-7 to signal the first 3-0 start in franchise history.

October 13—In a 23-20 victory over the Jets at Giants Stadium, WR Haywood Jeffries ties Charlie Hennigan's 30-year-old team record for receptions in a game with 13 (186 yards). QB Warren Moon completes 35-of-50 passes for 423 yards, which is the fifth-best total in team annals. Also, WR Drew Hill surpasses Hennigan's 410 catches to become the all-time leading receiver in Oiler history.

November 3—Despite a 16-13 OT loss at Washington, WR Drew Hill moves past WR Ken Burroughs' 6,907 receiving yards to become the Oilers' all-time leader in that category.

November 10—QB Warren Moon establishes career highs for completions (41) and attempts (56) as he throws for 432 yards, which is fourth best in team history, in Oilers' 26-23 OT victory over Dallas. Moon also passes Fran Tarkenton's 47,003 yards and moves into second place behind Ron Lancaster on all-time professional passing yards chart.

December 8—The Oilers defeat the Steelers 31-6 in the Astrodome as Houston captures its first-ever undisputed AFC Central Division championship. QB Warren Moon throws for 254 yards and becomes just the third QB in NFL history (Miami's Dan Marino, San Diego's Dan Fouts) to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons.

December 15—QB Warren Moon surpasses Dan Marino's NFL record (378 in 1986) for completions in a season as the Oilers beat the Browns 17-14.

December 18—Eight Oilers (tied NFL-best), including a league-high six starters are named to the AFC team for the February 2 Pro Bowl. The six starters include CB Cris Dishman, DE William Fuller, WR Haywood Jeffries, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. DT Ray Childress and QB Warren Moon are also named to the squad although Childress was eventually unable to play because of a back/rib injury.

December 21—WR Haywood Jeffries becomes just the fifth player in NFL history to record 100 receptions in a single season despite the Oilers' 24-20 road loss to the Giants. Coupled with Drew Hill's 90 catches, that pair's 190 represents the most receptions by two teammates in one season in league annals. In addition, QB Warren Moon eclipses Dan Marino's NFL record (623 in 1986) for attempts in a season. DE William Fuller registers his 15th sack of the season and thus becomes the first Oiler ever to lead the conference in that category.

December 29—The Oilers defeat the New York Jets 17-10 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game before 61,485 fans in the Astrodome. S Bubba McDowell intercepts two key passes inside the Oiler five-yard line to preserve the win.

January 4—After leading for most of the game, the Oilers end up losing a heartbreaking 26-24 decision to the Denver Broncos in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in front of 75,301 fans at Mile High Stadium. PK David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in the game proves to be the deciding points. The loss mars a great performance by Oiler QB Warren Moon, who completes 75% of his passes (27 of 36) for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

March 6—The Oilers name Steve Underwood as General Counsel. Underwood joins the Oilers from the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst where he has handled most of the team's legal work since 1977.

August 1—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 34-23 in the American Bowl in Tokyo, Japan, which marks Houston's first game outside of the United States.

August 31—The Oilers and QB Warren Moon reach agreement on a new multi-year contract that includes a settlement of a controversial escalator clause.

September 29—The Oilers sign free agent WR Webster Slaughter to a two-year contract. Slaughter had been one of four players who were declared free agents by a Minneapolis judge on September 24.

October 11—In a 38-24 win at Cincinnati, QB Warren Moon ties a personal best with five TD passes to eclipse George Blanda's team record for career touchdown passes (165. Moon now has 169). Also, WR Haywood Jeffries catches three TD passes to tie the franchise record, and RB Lorenzo White rushes for a career-best 149 yards.

October 18—QB Warren Moon becomes the leading passer in professional football history by surpassing Ron Lancaster's 50,535 yards (in 19 years). After the Oilers' heartbreaking 27-21 loss at Denver, Moon now has 50,589 yards. Moon's total, accumulated in less than 15 seasons, includes 21,228 yards in the CFL and 29,361 yards in the NFL.

November 15—In Houston's 17-13 win at Minnesota, QB Warren Moon suffers a fractured upper left arm on a fourth quarter hit by Viking S Vencie Glenn and misses the next five games. Despite the injury, Moon becomes just the 14th NFL QB to surpass 30,000 passing yards as he accomplishes that faster (125 games) than any player in league history except for Miami's Dan Marino (114 games).

November 26—Subbing for the injured Warren Moon, QB Cody Carlson throws for a career-high 338 yards as the Oilers defeat the Lions 24-21 on Thanksgiving Day in Detroit.

December 11—After being diagnosed with kidney cancer, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride undergoes surgery for the removal of his cancerous kidney. He misses two games as Receivers Coach Chris Palmer and injured QB Warren Moon help to handle Gilbride's game day responsibilities.

December 23—An NFL-best nine Oilers earn Pro Bowl honors with four players designated as starters for the February 7 game. The starters include WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. The Houston reserves feature DT Ray Childress, WR Curtis Duncan, WR Ernest Givins, QB Warren Moon and RB Lorenzo White. The inclusion of Jeffires, Givins and Duncan represents the first time ever that three receivers from the same team have been designated as Pro Bowlers.

December 20—Shortly after their exciting, come-from-behind 17-14 win at Cleveland, the Oilers learn that they have clinched a playoff berth for the sixth straight season. That represents the longest current post-season streak in the NFL.

December 27—As Houston routs Buffalo 27-3 in the regular season finale, WR Haywood Jeffires catches six passes to finish with 90 receptions. He thus leads the AFC in that category for the third straight season, becoming only the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat.

January 3—The Oilers lose a 41-38 OT decision at Buffalo in an AFC Wild Card playoff game. QB Warren Moon completes 36 of 50 passes for 371 yards and four first-half touchdowns.

January 4—The Oilers announce that they will not offer new contracts to Defensive Coordinator Jim Eddy and Defensive Backs Coach Pat Thomas.

January 29—The Oilers name Buddy Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator.

July 2—NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue rules in a dispute between the Oilers and Redskins. Tagliabue completes a trade which sends Washington LB Wilber Marshall to Houston in exchange for the Oilers' third-round draft choice in 1994 and their fifth-round selection in 1995.

November 14—WR Haywood Jeffires ties a team record with three touchdown receptions and QB Warren Moon throws four TD passes in just over two quarters of playing time as the Oilers rout the Bengals 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium. RB Gary Brown earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by rushing for 166 yards in his first NFL start, which marks the most yards by an Oiler back in 12 years.

November 21—RB Gary Brown explodes for 194 rushing yards to lead Houston to its fifth consecutive win, a 27-20 victory at Cleveland. Brown's rushing total is the highest by any AFC back in three years and the most by an Oiler in 13 years. His back-to-back running sum of 360 yards is also the team's best in 13 seasons. Brown becomes the first NFL back in ten years to gain over 100 yards in his first two career starts. Also, S Marcus Robertson ties a team record by becoming the first Oiler in 22 years to get three interceptions in a game.

November 28—In the Oilers' 23-3 AstroDome victory over the Steelers, WR Ernest Givins passes Drew Hill's 480 catches to become Houston's all-time leading receiver.

December 5—As Houston captures its seventh straight win with a 33-17 home decision over Atlanta, the Oilers' defense forces seven turnovers (including a team record-tying six interceptions) for its highest such total in 16 years.

December 14—Oiler DT Jeff Alm commits suicide following the death of his best friend in a traffic accident. The Oilers hold a memorial service for their teammate the following day.

December 19—The Oilers clinch their second outright AFC Central Division championship with a 26-17 win over the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. Houston thus cements a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, the longest current streak in the NFL. The Oilers also become just the second team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to go undefeated within the AFC's Central Division (also 1975 Steelers). Against Pittsburgh, PK Al Del Greco surpasses the team record of 115 points in a single season.

December 28—G Mike Munchak establishes an Oiler record by being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth time (Elvin Bethea had eight appearances).

January 2—The Oilers close the regular season with their club record 11th consecutive win, a 24-0 shutout of the Jets in the AstroDome. The winning streak is the longest in the NFL in nine years as the Oilers become just the fifth team in league history to close a season with 11 straight victories. The Oilers also set a franchise record with 12 wins for the season and go undefeated in both November and December for just the third time ever. Amazingly, RB Gary Brown finished with 1,002 yards in just eight starts.

January 27—The Oilers promote Assistant General Manager Floyd Reese to the position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager. Reese succeeds Mike Holovak, who assumes the title of Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting.

February 8—The Oilers promote Kevin Gilbride to Assistant Head Coach/Offense and name Dick Coury as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

February 9—Houston names Jeff Fisher as its new Defensive Coordinator, replacing Buddy Ryan, who left the Oilers to become General Manager/Head Coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

April 13—The Minnesota Vikings announce that they have reached an agreement to acquire QB Warren Moon from the Oilers in exchange for draft choices.

August 15—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 6-0 before 112,376 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. The in-house attendance is the largest ever for an NFL game.

September 4—WR Ernest Givins becomes Oilers' all-time receiving yardage leader, surpassing Drew Hill's mark of 7,477. Givins would end the season with 7,935 yards on 542 career receptions.

November 6—G Mike Munchak, who announced his retirement on July 21, 1994 to join the Oilers under the title of Assistant to Football Operations, is honored by Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., by having his #63 jersey retired at halftime ceremonies of Oilers-Steelers game.

November 14—After a 1-9 start, Head Coach Jack Pardee and Assistant Head Coach/Offense Kevin Gilbride are relieved of their duties. Jeff Fisher is elevated to title of Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator.

December 24—Houston closes out season with 24-10 victory over the New York Jets for Fisher's first win as a head coach.

July 25—QB Steve McNair signs contract at press conference held at Oilers' training camp.

August 11—Tennessee newspaper reports that Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen is meeting with Oiler officials. Nashville is willing to build new stadium if it will attract a professional team. K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Bredesen execute an agreement that gives the City of Nashville a 70-day exclusive negotiating period with the Houston Oilers to build a stadium and relocate the team.

August 19—Oilers-Chargers preseason game is canceled by NFL after field is deemed unplayable for safety reasons.

September 3—The Oilers travel to Jacksonville and defeat the Jaguars 10-3 in the expansion team's inaugural game.

September 24—QB Chris Chandler connects on 23-of-26 passes for 352 yards and four TDs, leading Oilers to a 38-28 win over the Bengals at Riverfront Stadium. Chandler's 88.46 completion percentage misses the NFL record by one completion. Chandler, who hooked up with rookie WR Chris Sanders on TD passes of 58 and 46 yards, is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

November 2—Oilers' long-time equipment assistant Bill "Mojo" Lackey passes away after a massive stroke.

November 5—Oilers win 37-10 over Browns and dedicate game to "Mojo" and his family. The win marks the Oilers' largest margin of victory at Cleveland since a 40-10 decision on Oct. 12, 1975.

November 12—K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and the Oilers announce the establishment of the Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award, which would be given to the player, coach or front office staff member that best exemplifies the qualities of the former equipment assistant. A $10,000 check is given to the winner to be awarded to charity in his or her name.

November 16—K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen sign a relocation agreement to move the Oilers the Tennessee.

OVERTIME RESULTS

December 23, 1962 - Dallas 20, at Houston 17: Texans win the toss but elect to kick. Each team gets three cracks at winning the game in the first overtime before K Tommy Brooker's championship-winning 25-yard field goal at 12:06 of the second OT.

October 30, 1977 - at Cincinnati 13, Houston 10: Bengals win the toss. QB Ken Anderson's 17-yard completion to WR Billy Brooks is the long play prior to K Chris Bahr's winning 22-yard field goal at 5:51 of OT.

September 23, 1979 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Oilers win the toss. On opening series, Bengals force Cliff Parsley punt. Cincinnati drives to Oilers' 14-yard line, but K Chris Bahr misses a 32-yard field goal attempt. Houston again has to punt on its ensuing series. The Oiler defense then forces a punt by the Bengals' Pat McNally. Houston takes over on the Cincinnati 42. RB Earl Campbell's 15-yard run is the long play prior to K Toni Fritsch's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:28 of OT.

October 28, 1979 - at Houston 27, N.Y. Jets 24: Oilers win the toss. QB Dan Pastorini's 22-yard completion to FB Rob Carpenter is the long play as Oilers drive 58 yards. K Toni Fritsch kicks the winning 35-yard field goal at 5:10 of OT.

November 23, 1980 - at N.Y. Jets 31, Houston 28: Jets win the toss. A personal foul on Houston's Guido Merkens on the kickoff gives New York possession at the Jets' 40-yard line. QB Richard Todd's 17-yard screen pass to RB Bobby Harper is the long play prior to K Pat Leahy's winning 38-yard field goal at 3:58 of OT.

September 4, 1983 - Green Bay 41, at Houston 38: Packers win the toss. RB Eddie Lee Ivory's 12-yard run is the long play as Packers drive 59 yards. K Jan Stenerud kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 5:55 of OT.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. K Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. K Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:35 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to K Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

*January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. K Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, subbing for injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to K Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. K Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-TE Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

*December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merrill Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon, with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, K Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR J.J. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Cris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo Jeffries is penalized for two yards before K Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

*January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27-yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes, who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffries is penalized for a face mask infraction, which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, K Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

November 6, 1994 - Pittsburgh 12, at Houston 9: Steelers win the toss. Both teams exchange five punts before the Oilers gain possession on their 12-yard line with 4:30 left in the extra period. On the first play from scrimmage, RB Gary Brown scoots up the middle for 8 yards before being hit by CB Rod Woodson. He fumbles and the Steelers take over at the Oilers 22-yard line. Two plays later, K Gary Anderson hits from 40 yards out for the winning score at 3:36 of OT.

October 8, 1995 - at Minnesota 23, Houston 17: Vikings win the toss. The Vikings move the ball to their 38-yard line but are forced to punt. Minnesota P Mike Saxon then pins the Oilers in at their 8-yard line with a 54-yard boot. On his third carry of overtime, RB Rodney Thomas scampers 27 yards to give the Oilers a first down at their 35. QB Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler after he injured his shoulder while being sacked on the Oilers' last offensive series in the fourth quarter, is intercepted on his second pass attempt by CB Dewayne Washington (25-yard return). RB Robert Smith takes his third consecutive carry of OT 20 yards for the winning score with 7:10 gone in the extra stanza.

October 6, 1996 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Bengals win the toss. The Bengals go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Oilers the ball inside their own 20-yard line. On second down at the Oilers' 16-yard line, QB Chris Chandler connects with WR Willie Davis on a 37-yard pass to move into Cincinnati territory. Six plays later, K Al Del Greco hits from 49 yards out for the winning score at 4:22 of OT.

August 31, 1997 - at Tennessee 24, Oakland 21: Oilers win the toss. Oilers go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Raiders the ball at their own 33-yard line. The Raiders also go three-and-out and punt the ball to the Oilers. Tennessee takes over the ball at its own 35-yard line. On second-and-eight, QB Steve McNair connects with Frank Wycheck for 21 yards to the Raiders 42-yard line. Again on second down, McNair finds Wycheck, this time for 10 yards to the Raiders 32-yard line. On the next play, McNair scrambles for an 11-yard gain. RB Eddie George gains six yards before Al Del Greco hits the game-winner from 33 yards away with 8:03 left on the clock in overtime. The win is the Oilers first since relocating to Tennessee from Houston.

September 7, 1997 - at Miami 16, Tennessee 13: Dolphins win the toss. The Oilers kick to Dolphin return man Irving Spikes, who returns the kickoff 48 yards to the Oilers 45-yard line. On second down, Dan Marino hits RB Bernie Parmalee for a 16-yard gain. Again on second down, Marino connects with Fred Barnett for a 9-yard gain. On the play, Oiler DB Tomur Barnes was flagged for an unnecessary roughness penalty which moved the ball to the Oilers 11-yard line. On the next play, Olindo Mare knocked home a 29-yard field goal with 12:45 remaining in overtime.

Dyson's return advances Titans in playoffs

Any hopes of the Titans winning their first playoff game in Tennessee seemed to disappear when Buffalo's Steve Christie connected on a 41-yard field goal with 16 seconds remaining to give the Bills a 16-15 lead in the Jan. 8, 2000 Wild Card playoff game at Adelphia Coliseum.

What transpired on the ensuing kickoff, however, stands as one of the greatest plays in NFL history.

Titans fullback Lorenzo Neal fielded Christie's high, short kickoff and immediately handed the ball to tight end Frank Wycheck. Wycheck started to run right, then stopped and fired a pass across the 25-yard line to wide receiver Kevin Dyson, who bolted 75 yards untouched down the left sideline and into the end zone for the game-winning score with three seconds remaining.

The Titans weren't out of the woods just yet, however. The NFL replay official called for a review to see if Wycheck had thrown a forward pass. After viewing the play from all angles, the play stood and euphoria filled the air at sold-out Adelphia Coliseum.

On May 15, 1998, Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., selected a 31-acre site at the MetroCenter complex in Nashville as the team's permanent practice location. Since that time, a beautiful multi-million dollar facility has been built by Nashville-based Powell Building Group on the property, located just north of downtown Nashville about five miles from the new stadium.

The team moved into the facility on August 26, 1999, the day after training camp completed and the day before the first preseason game at Adelphia Coliseum. The 80,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art building contains lockers, weight rooms, meeting rooms and offices for coaches, players and administrative staff. The building also features an auditorium with seating for 125 people, as well as other meeting rooms.

Baptist Sports Park contains state-of-the-art facilities for the team's players, coaches and staff.

The longitudinal center of each field is 24 degrees west of north, just like the field at Adelphia, enabling the Titans to practice in the same slanting sunlight they face on Sundays.

The site, selected from more than 60 sites reviewed, was purchased from MetroCenter properties. The new facility occupies a peninsula that joins into the lake across from the Fountain Square commercial development. Among the leading builders in middle Tennessee, Powell was chosen for its state-of-the-art construction planning and building techniques.

The weight training center and rehabilitation treatment facility sets the model for all professional sports. Designed to exceed the standards of all previous training and practice facilities, the new Titans' complex will be the envy of professional training centers for decades.

The facility boasts three outdoor practice fields with natural grass, plus an enclosed field with artificial turf. Logistically, each field is identical to Adelphia Coliseum, from the 100-yard length to the geographic orientation.

PAST TRAINING CAMP LOCATIONS

- 1960 University of Houston, Houston, Texas
- 1961-62 Ellington Air Force Base, Webster, Texas
- 1963 Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado
- 1964-66 Oilers Training Facility, Houston, Texas
- 1967-73 Schreiner Institute, Kerrville, Texas
- 1974-76 Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX
- 1977 Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches, Texas
- 1978-87 San Angelo State University, San Angelo, Texas

- 1997-98 Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tennessee
- 1999 Baptist Sports Park, Nashville, TN (Bellevue)
- 2000 Baptist Sports Park, Nashville, TN (MetroCenter)

The team's state-of-the-art weight room gives players the NFL's top facility to get in a good workout.

The club's locker room is larger than many locker rooms at NFL stadiums around the league.

Titans players are under excellent care between the club's medical staff and state-of-the-art training room.

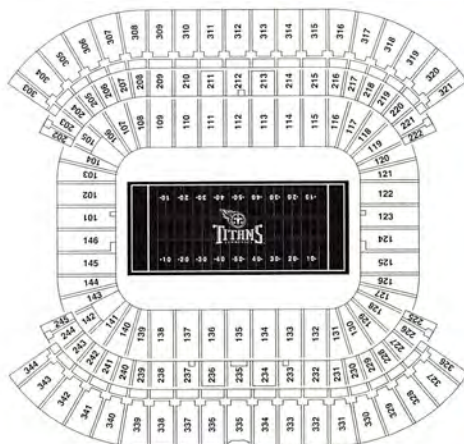

ADELPHIA COLISEUM

The Titans play in one of the NFL's premier stadiums in Adelphia Coliseum. The 67,000-seat, open-air, natural-grass Coliseum is located on 105 acres on the east bank of the Cumberland River overlooking downtown Nashville. It was built by HOK Sports Facilities Group of Kansas City, Mo, the same group that designed Jacksonville's Alltel Stadium, Miami's Joe Robbie Stadium, Charlotte's Ericsson Stadium, Baltimore's Camden Yards, and the Nashville Arena. The stadium will also be the home site for the Tennessee State University football squad.

Among the features:

- Open-air, natural grass
- 144 suites
- Club seating with heat & air-conditioning, spacious lounge area, high-quality food and beverage services, sitdown eating areas, closed circuit TV's and sound systems
- 60 concession stands throughout stadium
- Three locker rooms
- Two scoreboards with video screens located on north and south ends of stadium
- 4 suite elevators
- More than 2,000 trees planted within the 105 acres
- 7,500 parking spaces available

- on-site with more than 20,000 existing parking spaces nearby
- Space for 400 wheelchair patrons and associated companion seats
- 80 parking spaces for disabled
- 26 men's restrooms, 40 women's restrooms
- Tifsport Bermuda sod, which grew for a year before being laid down in May. Each roll of sod weighed 2,000 pounds and was cut into 108-foot long, 42-inch wide strips that were 1.5 inches thick.
- Sophisticated field irrigation and drainage system
- State-of-the-art press box

The Home of the defending AFC Champions....This Is Titans Radio.

Comprised of more than 60 stations across six states, Titans Radio ranks as one of the NFL's largest and most active radio networks. Through the work of Titans Radio partners in communities large and small, the Mid South was galvanized around the Titans' miracle season. From countless interviews with the Titans Radio broadcast team, promotion of off-season programs such as the Titans Caravan and ticket sales, to sending listeners and clients to Adelphia Coliseum, Titans Radio partners worked hard to turn Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, Mississippi, eastern Arkansas and Southern Illinois into Titans Country!

Titans Radio Game Day Coverage begins two hours before kickoff on flagship station WGFX-FM 104.5 with Eye on Football featuring Larry Stone and former University of Tennessee and Vanderbilt coach Doug Mathews. Stone begins his fourth season as executive producer/gameday host for the network. A broadcaster since the age of 16, Stone has won numerous awards for news and sports coverage, including 23 while producing/hosting University of North Carolina sports.

The full network begins coverage one hour before kickoff with Titans Countdown, a fast-paced hour of interviews, features and special guests. Then, the NFL's best play-by-play team takes to the air as "The Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith and Pat Ryan join Stone and sideline reporter Cody Allison for Titans Football 2000.

Keith begins his second season as the "Voice of the Titans" after more than 10 award-winning years covering University of Tennessee sports for Knoxville's WIVK/WNOX Radio. As the Titans' Director of Broadcasting, Keith spends countless hours speaking to civic groups spreading the Titans excitement.

Ryan spent 12 years as a backup quarterback for the New York Jets. The University of Tennessee product brings a quick wit and sharp analysis to each Titans broadcast.

Allison is a Knoxville native who worked at WIVK Radio and the Vol Network from 1992-94.

After the game, fans get the latest from Titans players and coaches on the Logan's Roadhouse Lockerroom Report. Game day ends with 90 minutes of calls from across the mid south on Titans Talkback as Keith, Ryan, Stone and Mathews talk with listeners about the day's action.

In addition to game day coverage, Titans Radio also provides morning and afternoon updates on the team each weekday. Tuesday nights, the Titans head coach and Keith take calls from fans on the Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show. TitansRadio.Com provides fans with the latest Titans news, audio interviews and commentary, plus columns from Keith and Stone.

The Tennessee Titans Radio Network is a joint-venture of Dick Broadcasting Co. and Capitol Radio Networks. For information on advertising, contact Director of NFL Sales Kyle Denzel at kdenzel@titansradio.com.

Dwyer also will host the "Jeff Fisher Show," which can be seen live from Opry Mills in Nashville every Monday night on Channel 2 throughout the season. The 30-minute show features highlights from the game, complete game evaluation from Coach Fisher, special features, and a different Titans player each week. Local high school prep standouts will be honored each week, in addition to a Titans player or staff member for their charitable contributions to the greater Nashville community.

The brand new Opry Mills is the site of the "Jeff Fisher Show." for the 2000 season. Hosted by WKRN Sports Director John Dwyer, it airs during the season Monday nights on Channel 2 in Nashville.

Weekly Titans Radio Show With Coach Fisher: Tuesdays at 6 p.m. (CST)

Mike Keith hosts a weekly radio show with Titans head coach Jeff Fisher throughout the season.

Titans Radio play-by-play voice Mike Keith will once again host "The Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show", live from O'Charley's in Brentwood. Jeff Fisher is live on-site to take questions from the audience, from callers and via e-mail (www.titansradio.com). Each show features a different player guest, as well.

"The Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show" airs on over 50 Titans Radio stations throughout the Mid-South. The program runs from July 25, 2000 through January, 2001.

2000 TENNESSEE TITANS CHEERLEADERS

After a successful debut in 1999, the Tennessee Titans Cheerleaders and Yell Leaders return to cheer their AFC Champion Titans to another winning season.

This year, 19 cheerleaders and six yell leaders return from the 1999 squad. The 2000 squad consists of 36 cheerleaders and 11 yell leaders. Together, they made their presence felt in the greater Nashville community in 1999, making numerous appearances throughout the club's Super Bowl season. Whether it's getting fans at Adelphia Coliseum pumped up during a game, or making children smile at an appearance, the Tennessee Titans Cheerleaders and Yell Leaders are making their mark in Nashville.

Jr. Titans Cheerleaders Swing Into Action

The Tennessee Titans Cheerleaders introduce their official Junior Titans Cheerleader Program during the 2000 season. Young children between the ages of 7 and 16 years of age participate in six cheer/dance clinics, attend selected community events with the Titans Cheerleaders and perform during halftime of a Titans game as part of the six-month program. The Junior Titans Cheerleading Program provides fun and motivational challenges for the participants while strengthening individual talents and abilities in a non-competitive environment. Through such a program, children can improve upon their self-esteem while learning team and character building skills.

Predators Honor Titans

Titans quarterback Steve McNair drops the honorary puck at a Nashville Predators game at the Gaylord Entertainment Center. The Titans were honored for their Super Bowl season. Titans head coach Jeff Fisher, team president Jeff Diamond, tight end Frank Wycheck, tackle Brad Hopkins, and Titans mascot T-Rac were also on hand.

Add excitement to your birthday party, company picnic, grand opening, or any event. For appearance information, call: 615-565-TRAC, or E-mail T-Rac at trac@titans.nfl.com.

Acquired: T-Rac's path to become the mascot for the Tennessee Titans has taken some interesting and crazy turns. His parents, who are from the Great Smokey Mountains, moved to Centennial Park in Nashville a little over 3 years ago when they heard the Titans were coming to town. T-Rac was born near the Parthenon and he grew up playing along the Cumberland River and watching Adelphia Coliseum being built. "That place is cool," he often told his friends. "I'm going to work and live there one day." His dream almost didn't come true when he was run over by the recreational vehicle used by the Titans caravan in the spring of 1999. The burly T-Rac escaped with only a broken claw and a smooshed fluffy tail. T-Rac and Titans owner Bud Adams took an instant liking to one another. He was soon offered a job changing the light bulbs in the big red things above the Coliseum, but he decided he would also be the mascot if the price was right. After all, he had turned down several other offers because he liked the Titans the best. And as the official state animal, T-Rac and the Titans are certainly the perfect match. When he was offered a three-figure signing bonus he accepted, was delivered to the stadium with much fanfare, and the rest is history.

Platform: Stop hit-and-runs on all Raccoons and get Raccoon crossings at all major Highways and Interstates (especially near Adelphia Coliseum)

Offseason: Pizza Delivery (until he got fired for delivering only empty boxes). He now does appearances for his many fans throughout the Mid-South.

Personal: T-Rac is single and resides in Adelphia Coliseum in Nashville, TN.

2nd Annual Titans Charity Golf Outing a Huge Success

TITANS IN THE COMMUNITY

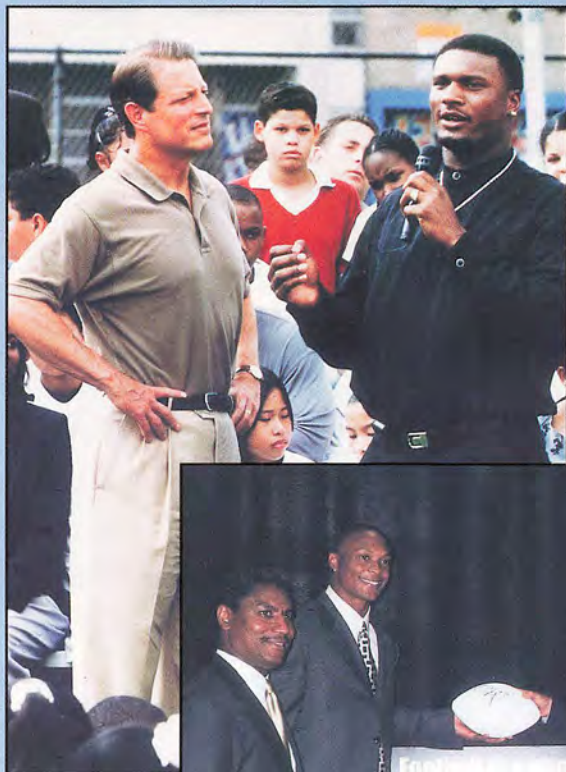

Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. sponsored trips to the Super Bowl for 40 disadvantaged youth from six local United Way partner agencies. The lifetime experience included meals, lodging, special festivities, and a ticket to the biggest football game in Nashville history.

Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., and his wife, Nancy, donated $500,000 to help kickoff their new foundation. "We are both proud and elated to create the foundation," Adams said. "This will provide us an opportunity to give back to a community that has given so much to us."

Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., presents Denny Bortoff with the Hero Award at a black-tie gala that celebrated the opening of Adelphia Coliseum. The gala was the first major fund-raiser for the newly-established Tennessee Titans Foundation. Bortoff, who led the club's advisory council, has been a major contributor to the Nashville community.

McNair, George Team With White House on Education, Seatbelt Safety

QB Steve McNair and Vice President Al Gore met with students in Washington, D.C. to talk about the importance of reading and education. Below, RB Eddie George helped Gore kick off the "Buckle Up America" campaign, promoting the importance of wearing seatbelts.

WR Chris Sanders and his wife, Stacie, both fitness gurus, produced a "Millennium 2000 Calendar" featuring workout tips, along with profiles and photos of Titans players. Proceeds benefited The Sanders Foundation, which provides support to local shelters, including The Salvation Army, Oasis Center, Room at the Inn, and The Nashville Union Rescue Mission.

Al Del Greco may have been missing the red hat and reindeer, but there is no doubt he had the heart for the business when he surprised a class of underprivileged kids with Christmas gifts last year.

Tennessee Titans Denard Walker surprised the kids at the Annual League for the Hearing Impaired picnic by playing catch, signing autographs, and explaining the rules of football with the help of an interpreter.

Many of our NFL players made their start in Pee-Wee football leagues, so it was a natural for offensive tackle Fred Miller to size up the competition on the Pee-Wee Titans of Cleveland, TN during his caravan visit to Chattanooga.

Defensive tackle Mike Frederick encouraged shoppers to round-up their grocery bill at Kroger to help in Second Harvest Food Bank's fight for hunger during the holiday season.

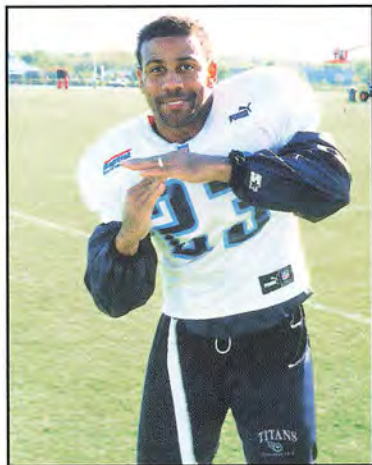

Titans Players Kick Off NFL Hometown Huddle

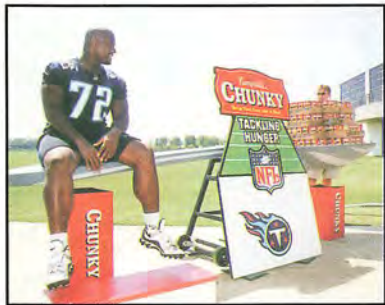

Cornerback Dainon Sidney joined wide receiver Kevin Dyson and safety Perry Phenix for the first "NFL & United Way Hometown Huddle." Together, the trio spent two hours reading books, playing educational games and signing t-shirts for the more than 60 children, ages 6 to 12. Hometown Huddle promotes leadership, dedication and community involvement.

Several Titans players and staff, including TE Frank Wycheck, FB Garrett Gould and DT's Jason Fisk, Mike Jones, Joe Salave'a and Rod Walker joined forces with Kroger employees and president Tom Rech to help build a home in Nashville for Habitat for Humanity. Kroger's "Sack for Cash" program was matched by Titans owner Bud Adams to total $12,800 toward the project.

Safety Blaine Bishop encouraged children to read, posing for this photo that was used for a Titans bookmark handed out at area schools.

Offensive tackle Brad Hopkins tipped the Campbell's Chunky Soup scale for Second Harvest Food Bank.

Players Visit Vanderbilt Cancer Patients

Titans players Joe Salave'a, Zach Piller, Garrett Gould, Kevin Daft, Mike Roan, and Kevin Long helped brighten the day of cancer patients at Vanderbilt Children's Hospital during the Christmas season.

A Thigpen Thanksgiving

More than 200 women and children from area homeless shelters were the guests of wide receiver Yancey Thigpen for his annual Thanksgiving dinner in memory of his father. Teammates Kevin Dyson, Joey Kent, Spencer George, along with several Titans staffers, also helped out in serving meals.

The Titans, in conjunction with the NFL, recognized high school coaches of the week throughout the season. Pictured are the 1999 winners, each of whom received a special certificate signed by NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue and Titans head coach Jeff Fisher. NFL Charities contributed $500 to each football program in the name of the winning coach.

The American Red Cross received a season of support from the Titans. The Titans kicked off the season with the "Hometown Hero" blood drive yielding more than 3,539 pints of blood. The Titans ended the season with a chance for donors to win Super Bowl tickets in the "Go for Blood" drive.

Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., donated exercise equipment and weights from the club's temporary facility in Bellevue to five area Metro schools when the Titans moved into their permanent facility at Baptist Sports Park in August 1999.

Joellynn Schultz, Jevonda Jones, Rahkel Jackson and Jessica Pleasant catch the WAVES, Inc. for developmental disabilities.

Jayne Hentrich, along with several other Titans' Women Association members, spread a little tender loving care at the Nashville Humane Association.

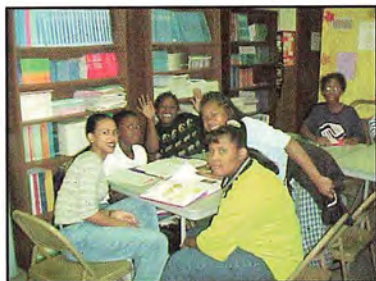

The Tennessee Titans Women's Association teamed with Kroger for the 3rd Annual Second Harvest food drive. Several Titans' families got involved, including (L to R): Kim Mathews and the Del Greco family (Lisa, Bubba, Trey, Al, and Erica).

Over a two week period Titans families appeared at more than 10 Kroger locations helping to raise more than 20,000 pounds of food for the holidays. Pictured from (L to R:) Kathy MacLachlan; Wesley, Joyce, and Dustin Spears; Shannon MacLachlan; Merrill Bohren; and Kelly MacLachlan.

It was an evening of fashion, fun and fund-raising at the Rhapsody in Red Gala for the American Red Cross. Jayme Hentrich, Kathleen Henshaw, Cherryn Wycheck, Lisa Del Greco and Juli Fisher strutted their stuff on the runway for a good cause.

It was a Titans Caring for Kid's Christmas, organized by the Titans Women's Association, that brought smiles to many faces last December. Titans players, coaches and staff adopted children for Christmas through the Department of Children Services, and over 50 children reaped the benefits of the spirit of Christmas giving.

Some think that the Tennessee Titans' road to Super Bowl XXXIV actually began on the backroads of the Mid-South in the spring of 1999. It was on those roads where the 1999 Titans Caravan wound its way through five states, cultivating enthusiasm for the Titans by directly contacting the fans. The 1999 Titans Caravan foreshadowed what was to come once

The Titans Caravan 2000 crew stands in front of the Camper Corner RV which was specifically decorated by Precision Signworks.

Adelphia Coliseum opened in August. It gave a hint that Titans fans were laying in wait for the 1999 season.

The rest is history: 11 sellouts, a 9-0 record at home and a Flame Pit full of furious fans named by Pro Football Weekly as the NFL's very best. The Titans rode their incredible support to the AFC Championship and trip to Super Bowl XXXIV.

With the '99 season in the books, it was obvious that there would be a Titans Caravan 2000. With it came a mandate: Do it bigger and better as we thank the NFL's best fans.

"Our 1999 Caravan was a great success in generating new fans and enthusiasm for the Titans," said Titans owner Bud Adams. "Last year we asked fans to get behind us. They did just that, in an incredible way. Now, it is our job to keep them fired up and that's what Titans Caravan 2000 is all about."

Titans Caravan 2000 would be more ambitious than the team's two prior spring tours. This version would be a 12-day, 60-city, 72-stop journey that took Titans players, staff and broadcasters through the Mid-South. It would take more commitment from everyone involved, as staffers would spend almost two weeks away from home. It would also take incredible coordination between the Titans and their Caravan partners:

Titans Radio, Kroger and Campers Corner RV Supercenter.

Titans Vice President for Community Affairs Bob Hyde and Titans Radio executive producer Larry Stone once again laid out the overall plan, with help from Tessa Atkins, Monica Petty, Tony Wyllie, Kyle Sonneman, Tom Vinson and Don MacLachlan. Hyde and Stone would be joined on all Caravan trips once again by the "Voice of the Titans," Mike Keith. Titans media relations assistants Jimmy Stanton and Robbie Bohren also joined the lineup, as did the club's popular Pro Bowl mascot, "T-Rac."

As Titans Caravan 2000 traveled through Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Kentucky, staffers were ecstatic over the size of the crowds for public appearances. After Tennessee's successful 1999 season, it was no surprise that crowds would be bigger than last year. But no one could gauge how much bigger: in some cases, four to five times the size of the crowds during last year's Caravan stops.

Quarterback Steve McNair (left) and defensive end Jevon Kearse signed hundreds of autographs at the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville, TN.

returner Derrick Mason drew huge numbers in West Tennessee. Defensive tackles Jason Fisk and Joe Salave'a drew like crowds in West Tennessee and North Mississippi. Wide receiver Kevin Dyson packed houses all over Western Kentucky. Cornerback Dainon Sidney then started the charge through North Alabama. Newly-acquired linebacker Randall Godfrey would continue it with big stops in Florence and Athens, AL.

Titans Caravan 2000's largest gatherings were on the way through East Tennessee.

Offensive lineman Fred Miller and quarterback Steve McNair signed autographs at Chattanooga's Hamilton Place Mall for over two hours. Guesses were everywhere about how many people actually came through the autograph line, with some estimates ranging near 2000. McNair led the Caravan through Athens, LaFollette and Cleveland, signing autographs for a total of over 2000 people. Cleveland Banner sports editor John Brice was impressed with what he saw. "That folks started lining up at nearly 6 in the morning in front of the Museum Center at Five Points is a testament to just how far this team has come in the last four years. And I don't mean miles from Houston. The line of people to see the Titans eventual-

The opening day (March 27, 2000) should have been a clue as to what was to come. Three different groups made a total of 14 one-hour stops in Middle Tennessee. When the three groups compared notes at the end of the first day, the staff felt as if six stops had eclipsed the biggest single stop of the 1999 Caravan. It continued from there.

ly stretched around the museum. But the Titans, who started the day off running a few minutes behind, took the time to make the fans---their fans---as happy as possible."

Quarterback Steve McNair greeted fans with smiles, posed for pictures and accepted a key to the city of Cleveland---all the while answering questions with a "Yes Sir" or "Thank you Ma'am." McNair said "the team finally feels at home. At home in the state of Tennessee."

In Knoxville later that same day, McNair would again look right at home. After a reception at the Knoxville Boys and Girls Club where he cut a United Way television promo, McNair traveled to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame for a reception that included United Way representatives and clients and staff of Knoxville Titans Radio partner, Eagle 100 (WOKI). The reception was packed to greet Titans president

Wide receiver Derrick Mason and young Andrew Bigham visit at the Titans Caravan 2000 stop in Paris, TN.

Jeff Diamond, McNair and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, defensive end Jevon Kearse. After the reception, McNair and Kearse went upstairs to sign autographs for and take pictures with the public. The line, which been forming for hours, stretched all the way around the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. In the end, Kearse and McNair signed for nearly two and a half hours, 75 minutes longer than scheduled. How many people came through? An exact count wasn't readily available, but it easily rivaled Chattanooga's turnout from the night before.

The East Tennessee Titans tidal wave continued with Kearse making rousing stops in Sevierville, Newport and Greeneville. Fullback Lorenzo Neal took the Caravan into the Tri-Cities as a massive crowd turned out at the Johnson City Mall. From there, Neal and Titans Caravan 2000 wound its way back home with visits in Morristown, Crossville and Lebanon.

After cornerback Donald Mitchell made a weekend visit in Louisville, Ky., fellow defensive back Samari Rolle closed the Caravan in style. It was only fitting that Middle Tennessee towns Pulaski and Lawrenceburg held the final two visits. Each drew more than five times the crowd that they had drawn the year before.

Amazing. It is the only word that you can use to describe the crowds and the passion that greeted Titans Caravan 2000. The AFC Championship of 1999 had obviously fueled the Titan fire, but the players' willingness to take time with the fans (especially the young fans) is what sealed the bond between the two. That bond is what Titans Caravan 2000 was all about.

Steve Beavers, sports editor with Booneville, Mississippi's The Banner Independent, got a true picture of the event's goal at his town's Titans Caravan 2000 stop.

"The Titans are fast becoming the NFL team in the south and they are working hard at it. I can't think of any other team that makes caravan stops during the off-season. This shows that the team isn't resting on last season's accomplishments. They want to keep a good thing going."

Keeping a good thing going is what Titans Caravan 2000 was all about. And saying "Thanks to the NFL's best fans" was absolutely the best way to do it!

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Anti-Inflammatory - Any agent which prevents inflammation (such as aspirin or ibuprofen).

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscopy - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for bending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

C.P.R. - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of the blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital - Existing before birth; to be born with.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortisone - An anti-inflammatory medication.

Costochondral - The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte - Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral - The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metacarpals - Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Mobilization - Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNE (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Referred Pain - Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrae fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Turf Burn - Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

A Super Media Frenzy!

Thousands of reporters gathered at the Georgia Dome for Media Day during Super Bowl week in January. To the left, offensive lineman Bruce Matthews entertains a crowd of reporters.

To the right, defensive coordinator Gregg Williams is the center of attention during a media session outside the team's hotel.

TITANS MEDIA POLICY

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Beginning this season, credentials issued on a season-long basis and will display the reporter's/photographer's picture on the credential, making it non-transferable. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Media Relations, Tennessee Titans, 460 Great Circle Rd., Nashville, TN 37228, or by fax to (615) 565-4105. REQUESTS MUST BE RECEIVED AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO A HOME GAME.

PARKING: Parking for Titans games also must be applied for via written request. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game day. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked adjacent to Gate 6. A parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL-CALL: The media entrance is located at Gate 6. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window at Gate 6. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Beginning this season, photographers who are credentialed for sideline access will be required to wear a special vest. Vests will be issued on a season-long and game-by-game basis. Visiting photographers must return the vests after the game to security. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Titans' and visitors' interview rooms after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE LOCKER ROOM. With five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, take the media elevator or stairs to the field level. With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media members will be allowed on the field. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON THE PLAYING FIELD. Jeff Fisher's postgame interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Titans interview room across from the Titans' locker room. Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the multi-box behind the camera platform to ease congestion at the podium. Players will be available approximately 10 minutes after the game when the locker room is open. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitors' interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

PRESS BOX: The press box phone numbers are (615) 565-4450 (home p.r.) and (615) 565-4452 (visiting p.r.).

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is located at the Titans' practice facility at MetroCenter. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Titans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. The phone number in the media workroom is (615) 565-4116.

JEFF FISHER INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Jeff Fisher will conduct a weekly news conference at 3:30 p.m. on Mondays in the Practice Facility Auditorium. He will also be available following practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Titans' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Tuesday is the players' day off. The locker room is open to the media on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Titans' Media Relations office. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone. Please call in advance when possible to schedule.

PRESS RELEASES: The Titans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official web site at www.titansonline.com. Members of the media can also access league information from the NFL's media site at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official web site address is www.nfl.com.

CHALLENGE US

Inside the "bubble" at the Tennessee Titans Training Facility at Baptist Sports Park

Powell Building Group was challenged by the Titans to complete their state-of-the-art training facility on-budget and in time for training camp. That challenge was met and exceeded, and Powell Building Group was named Official Builder of the Tennessee Titans. Powell consistently delivers excellence in workmanship, quick response, and extraordinary customer service. Give us a challenge; we'll meet it head-on.
